Michael Kline

Michael was born in 1716 in Germany and died in 1792 in North Carolina. He is buried in Cold Water Lutheran Cemetery, Cabarrus County, North Carolina.

At the age of 22, he came to the U.S. on the ship Charming Nancy, departing from Rotterdam and arriving under the command of Captain Charles Stedman at the port of Philadelphia on November 9, 1738. With the other passengers from the ship, they proceeded to the Court House and each signed an oath of allegiance to the British Government. Some of them didn't have the money to pay for their trip and so agreed to be "indentured" to the person who advanced the passage money for them. We don't know if Michael had enough to pay for his trip. Michael proceeded on his way to join the other German immigrants. Since they spoke a different language, the Pennsylvania Dutch community grew.

He married Anna Catherine Shuffert on June 17, 1750 in Christ Lutheran Church in Dryville, Berks County, Pennsylvania. She was born on November 14, 1732 in Germany and died March 11, 1798. She is also buried in Cold Water Lutheran Cemetery, Cabarrus County, NC. The Cold Water Church in which they were members, stands only about 1 mile from where their house stood.

Catherine came to America when she was about a year old with her parents on the ship Richard and Elizabeth, which sailed under Captain Christopher Clymer from Rotterdam and landed at Philadelphia on September 28, 1733. In the family were [Johann] George, aged 44, Gertrude age 32, John, 10, and Anna Catherine, 1. On the ship manifest, their last name was spelled "Shufard."

Michael and Catherine had 11 children, at least four of whom died in infancy:

- Anna Mary Rachel Kline (died in infancy)
- Anna Elizabeth Kline b. about 1751
- Barbel (Barbara) Kline b.1753 (died a year later)
- Catherine Kline
- Christina Magdalena Kline b. 13 Apr 1751 (died a few months later)
- Mary Magdalena Kline (married Michael Walcher) b. 1759
- Anna Margaret Kline b. 10 Jul 1761
- George Kline b. ca. 1765 (married Maria Meinsenheimer in 1795)
- Medlina Kline b. 1772 (died a year later)
- Daniel Kline b. 1774 (married Leah Blackwelder in 1795)
- John Kline b. 1776 (married Rachael Shaver in 1798)

Fifteen years after Michael's immigration, his father Moriz Klein also came to America, with the rest of his family: wife Anna Catherina, sons Jacob, Hans Michael and Johann Theobold and daughter Johannes. His name was spelled in the original German manner in church records, though those same records confirm he was Michael's father. Moriz's family sailed on the ship Phoenix, landing in Philadelphia on September 13, 1749. Records must be closely studied, because Jacob had several children with the same names as Michael's children, and many researchers confuse them.

Battle of Brandywine

The Battle of Brandywine was part of the Philadelphia campaign of the American Revolutionary War fought on September 11, 1777, in the area surrounding Chadd's Ford, Pennsylvania and the Brandywine River. The battle, which was a decisive victory for the British, left Philadelphia, the revolutionary capital, undefended. The British captured the city on September 26, beginning an occupation that would last until June 1778.

Background - In late July 1777, after a distressing 34-day journey from Sandy Hook on the coast of New Jersey, an armada of more than 260 ships carrying some 17,000 British troops under the command of the British General Howe landed at the head of Maryland's Elk River, on the northern end of the Chesapeake Bay near present-day Elkton, approximately 40–50 miles southwest of Philadelphia. Unloading the ships proved to be a logistical problem because the narrow river neck was shallow and muddy.

General George Washington had situated the American forces, about 20,600 strong, between Head of Elk and Philadelphia. His forces were able to reconnoiter the British landing from Iron Hill, about nine miles to the northeast. Because of the delay disembarking from the ships, Howe did not set up a typical camp but quickly moved forward with the troops. As a result, Washington was not able to accurately gauge the strength of the opposing forces.

After a skirmish at Cooch's Bridge and a hastily-abandoned defensive encampment along the Red Clay Creek near Newport, Washington finally chose the high ground near Chadd's Ford to defend against the British, since Chadd's Ford allowed a safe passage across the Brandywine River on the road from Baltimore to Philadelphia. Accordingly, on September 9, Washington positioned detachments to guard other fords above and below Chadd's Ford, hoping to force the battle there. Washington employed General John Armstrong commanding about 1,000 Pennsylvania militia to cover Pyle's Ford, a few hundred yards south of Chadd's Ford, which was covered by Generals Anthony Wayne's and Nathanael Greene's divisions. General John Sullivan's division extended northward along the Brandywine's east banks, covering the high ground north of Chadd's Ford along with General Adam Stephen's division and General Lord Stirling's divisions. Further upstream was a brigade under Colonel Moses Hazen covering Buffington's Ford and Wistar's Ford. Washington was confident that the area was secure.

The British grouped forces at nearby Kennett Square. Howe had no intention of mounting a full scale attack against the prepared American defenses. He instead employed a flanking maneuver similar to those used in the Battle of Long Island. A portion of the army, about 5,000 men under the command of Wilhelm von Knyphausen, advanced to meet Washington's troops at Chadd's Ford. The remainder, under the command of Lord Charles Cornwallis, marched north to Trimble's Ford across the West Branch of the Brandywine, and then east to Jefferi's Ford across the East Branch, and then marched south to flank the American forces.

Battle - September 11 began with a heavy fog, which provided cover for the British troops. Washington received contradictory reports about the British troop movements and continued to

Battle of Brandywine

The Battle of Brandywine was part of the British campaign of the American Revolutionary War. Fought on September 11, 1777, it was a conventional battle between forces under the British commander General William Howe and the Continental Army under General George Washington. The battle was a decisive victory for the British, and the Continental Army retreated to Chester, and then to Philadelphia. The British occupied the city on September 26, beginning an occupation that would last until June 1778.

Background - In late July 1777, after abandoning Mount Independence, the Continental Army, under the command of General George Washington, moved south to Philadelphia. Washington's army numbered approximately 11,000 men, including 400 cavalrymen and 1,000 militiamen. The British Army, under the command of General William Howe, numbered approximately 18,000 men, including 5,000 cavalrymen and 1,000 militiamen. The British Army was transported by a fleet of 260 ships, commanded by Admiral Richard Howe, and was accompanied by a large number of British warships. Queen Eleanor of Aquitaine Eleanor of Aquitaine (1122 – 1 April 1204) was one of the wealthiest and most powerful women in Western Europe during the High Middle Ages. She was the patroness of such literary figures as Wace, Benoît de Sainte-More, and Chrétien de Troyes.

Eleanor succeeded her father (no sons), becoming Duchess of Aquitaine and Countess of Poitiers at the age of fifteen, and thus became the most eligible bride in Europe. Three months after her accession she married Louis VII, son and junior co-ruler of her guardian, King Louis VI. As Queen of the Franks, she participated in the unsuccessful Second Crusade. Soon after the Crusade was over, Louis VII and Eleanor agreed to dissolve their marriage, because of Eleanor's own desire for divorce and also because the only children they had were two daughters - Marie, and Alix. The royal marriage was annulled on 11 March 1152, on the grounds of consanguinity within the fourth degree. Their daughters were declared legitimate and custody of them awarded to Louis, while Eleanor's lands were restored to her.

As soon as she arrived in Poitiers, Eleanor proposed to the eleven years younger Henry II, Duke of the Normans. On 18 May 1152, eight weeks after the annulment of her first marriage, Eleanor married the Duke of the Normans. On 25 October 1154 her husband ascended the throne of the Kingdom of England, making Eleanor Queen of the English. Over the next thirteen years, she bore Henry eight children: five sons, two of whom would become king, and three daughters. However, Henry and Eleanor eventually became estranged. She was imprisoned between 1173 and 1189 for supporting her son's revolt against King Henry II.

Eleanor was widowed on 6 July 1189. Her husband was succeeded by their son, Richard the Lionheart, who immediately moved to release his mother. Now queen mother, Eleanor acted as a regent for her son while he went off on the Third Crusade. Eleanor survived her son Richard and lived well into the reign of her youngest son King John. By the time of her death she had outlived all of her children except for King John and Eleanor, Queen of Castile.

Gov. William Stone and Verlinda Stone

William Stone served as Maryland's first Protestant Governor, and he and his wife Verlinda both took action to preserve freedom of religion in Maryland.

William Stone was born in England around 1603 and came from a well-known merchant family in London. However, William chose to come to America, and migrated to Virginia in 1628. He was successful there, working as a merchant and planter. He was respected by his neighbors and was appointed justice of the peace and then sheriff in Accomack County, Virginia.

He also served as a burgess in the Virginia Assembly. However, when civil war broke out in England, many Protestants who supported the Parliament were no longer welcome in Virginia, which supported the King. At this time, Lord Baltimore, the proprietor of Maryland, began trying to attract more settlers to Maryland, and many Protestants left Virginia.

William Stone and his wife Verlinda came to Maryland in 1648. That same year Stone was given a great opportunity. With civil war still going on in England and with many new Protestant settlers in Maryland, Lord Baltimore wanted to appoint a Protestant Governor. He chose William Stone, probably partly to reward Stone for promising to bring hundreds of settlers to Maryland. Stone served as Governor for six years until some of the more radical Protestants, called Puritans, gained control of the government and began to pass laws which restricted religious freedom.

Stone decided he needed to fight back, so he organized about 100 supporters and marched against the rebels in the Battle of Severn. He was greatly outnumbered, and after losing nearly half his men and being wounded in the shoulder, Stone surrendered. He was made a prisoner and held for over a month.

While he was in captivity, his wife Verlinda tried to help him by writing to Lord Baltimore. She made sure the proprietor knew exactly what happened so he could protect both her husband and the colony. Stone was eventually released from prison and resumed his position as Governor. He died in 1660, leaving 14,950 pounds of tobacco for his wife and seven children.

Verlinda soon started acquiring more land for her family. In 1664 she patented 300 acres of land in Charles County which she called "Virlinda" and two years later bought 500 more acres in what is now Prince George's County. She lived in the colony which she and her husband had fought to preserve up until her death in 1675.

THE WALCHER MURDER TRIAL.

HILLSBORO, Ill., May 14.—[Special.]—The examination of witnesses began this morning in the Walcher murder trial. Six witnesses were examined today, the testimony of Frank Burns, a close companion of the murdered man, being the most important. Two physicians testified as to the nature of the wound, one of them being the Coroner. They testified that the murdered man must have been killed instantly, the bullet having penetrated the most vital part of the brain. Counsel for the defense sought to introduce as evidence a pistol and a dirk-knife, said to have been taken from the body of the murdered man, to show that the deceased was armed at the time he was killed, and that this fact was known to the defendant and probably caused him to fire the fatal shot. This was objected to by the prosecution and the court sustained the objection for the present.

A Parliamentary Diplomatic Appropriation Bill—Senate Consent on Minister Lowell.

Foreign Discriminations Against American Products—Senate and Bass-Rates Inquiries.

Conflict of the Treasury—Counsel Blackburn—Judge Kelley Indignant—Exciting Scene in the Senate.

CONSULAR APPROPRIATIONS.

A SUBSTANTIAL MEASURE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—[Special.]—There was a very dim attendance in the House. Forty first on the roll, only twenty more were making answer inquiries as to the spread of the pneumo-lung fever and the cattle-plague. The Consular and Diplomatic bill was under consideration. The bill is usually with provisions little discussion. This year the Appropriations Committee, in an effort to pare down expenditures to the narrowest limits, has brought in a bill which Cannon denounced in vigorous language as lean of suggestiveness and inquisition of retrenchment. His speech was a very forcible amplification of the parsimonious judge which appears in the appropriations. Until Committee under the leadership of Cannon twin sheet composedly, Hopkins of Illinois, Potter of New York, a Democrat, also denounced the bill. Potter, who is a very quiet gentleman of dynamic and vocal energy, rather shocked the House by his vehemence. Perhaps Lowell, which he described as a "substantial measure," was the appropriation for the British minister and one of the bill and the second divided among the poor pretence-claimants. There is a fair probability that the Appropriations Committee will be defeated in argument, and it is not likely that the Senate will agree to a less appropriation than that for the expired fiscal year. Bonaparte argued that the Senate adjourn over next Monday, for the reason that the House could not get through with the bill, and that the Senate could not, in the interest of Pocahontas for the summer, consent to make a speech against the motion. He hoped that the House would not run away from the public business. The motion was rejected by a large majority. The adoption of this motion to Pocahontas is a visit to some of the Virginia Indians, represented by sixty-two officers of the Army of the Potomac and of the army of Northern Virginia, who have gone to Richmond to take in the fields of Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, and the position of the Wilderness.

AMERICAN PRODUCTS ABROAD.

DISCRIMINATIONS PRACTICED BY VARIOUS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—A unanimous report from the Committee on Foreign Relations was laid before the Senate today upon the second branch of the Anthony resolution of Jan. 10 relating to the discriminations of some from the United States to foreign countries, and to discriminations of some against exports from the United States by the tariff laws of the principal countries of Europe and America. The committee say it may be stated generally that some of the tariffs of Europe are discriminations against specific American products imported from the United States, but discriminations based on the tariff systems of some countries, prohibitive of the importation of some articles, against manufactures imported from non-treaty countries necessarily result in placing importations from the United States on a system discriminating.

Reviewing the prohibition against the importation of pork products from Germany and France, the committee say the discrimination against the tariff bill, the tariff system prohibits of a specific American product as a manufacture of American product as compared with the tariff system of Germany, which is based on a specific American product, the tariff system of France, which is based on a specific American product, and the tariff system of Austria, which is based on a specific American product. The committee say that the tariff system of France, which is based on a specific American product, and the tariff system of Austria, which is based on a specific American product, and the tariff system of Austria, which is based on a specific American product, and the tariff system of Austria

.....Call it a clan, call it a network, call it a tribe, call it a family: Whatever you call it, whoever you are, you need one.
.....Families are the compass that guide us. They are the inspiration to reach great heights, and our comfort when we occasionally falter.
.....Families are like fudge...mostly sweet with a few nuts.
.....When you look at your life, the greatest happinesses are family happinesses.
.....The family is one of nature's masterpieces.
.....Happiness is having a large, loving, caring, close-knit family in another city.
.....You don't choose your family. They are God's gift to you, as you are to them.

Come and enjoy a great meal, good fellowship, wonderful talent, an exciting auction, and a fun time!

Dear Barbara F and Barbara S.
I went to the bank and opened an account. (WALCHER EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENT) FUND AT THE BANK OF COMMERCE 201 West Harvey, Wellington Kansas 67152
Mr Long suggested we have a lawyer review our contract. He said it is written very good but he thought there might be some loose ends that should be added. He thought it would be a good idea to do that at the beginning than to have problems later on.. We can go ahead and open an account now and have it checked out later on after the Reunion. You can send me the checks and I will deposit them or you can send them to the bank. More later, Carol

Cheyenne 100 Years Ago

Oklahoma

By Dale Tracy: {January 20, 1910 issue is missing so we bring to you Cheyenne Sunbeam of January 19, 1900 instead}

DEAD INDIAN SCHOOL: At the monthly examination closing the third month of our school, Dist #18, the following pupils made between 90 and 100. Arithmetic: Mae Waddle, Orville Grover, Lloyd Monroe, Sam Scott, Richard Sing, Tom Kendall, Oscar Scott, Sallie Sing; Geography: Maggie Kendall, Orville and Grover Monroe, Sam, Oscar and Lena Scott, Tom Kendall, Pearl Scott, Richard Sing; Grammar: Orville Monroe; Physiology: Maggie Kendall, Sam Scott; History: Sam Scott. John Osborn Teacher

Miss Della Cann of Cheyenne is on the Executive Committee of the State Teachers' Assoc. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson a daughter. Arch Anderson has returned from Hot Springs where he had an operation performed, having injured himself by falling off a horse. A party at the residence of J.H. Parrish and wife attracted quite a number of Cheyenne's young folks last Friday evening. Dr. A. Morris of Berlin was here Mon. Immense flocks of birds passed here Sun flying north. We think they were curlews. Geese have been seen going north lately, which is a very unusual circumstance at this season of the year.

Calvin Rosser brought in the news yesterday of the death of Mrs. T.L. Keen's mother, a few days ago. A.L. Thurmond and W.A. Beaty left for Guthrie last Sat. to look after the interest of School District #1. Mr. and Mrs. John Warren will commemorate the finishing of their new house by giving a dance this evening. The gentleman taking the most ladies to the gathering will be rewarded with a cake.

A well known former resident of Cheyenne was ambushed and killed about 18 miles from Kingfisher. Col. John F. Stone and William Cater were traveling horseback across country and upon passing a shock of corn they were fired on. Col. Stone received a full load of buckshot in the chest and face killing him instantly. Cater realizing his dangerous position put in full speed and soon carried himself out of the reach of the would be assassin. After Stone was killed, the assassin robbed his body of $25, Masonic pin, some keys, his gold watch, valuable papers and overcoat. Evidence points to James Walcher as the assassin as he has been arrested and placed in the Guthrie jail. It appears that Walcher had mortgaged the same property twice, once to Stone and once to Capitol National Bank of Guthrie. It is believed the killing was a result of this business deal.

Coldwater Church
Is this Mt Giliad?

(written in early 1930's)

The first positive date of the existence of a church called Coldwater is taken from the Shinn Family book, in which it is recorded the marriage of Silas Shinn and Eleanor Overcash, who were married in the old Coldwater Church in 1766, by the Reverend Samuel Suther . It is believed that he was the first regular pastor of this church but there was probably a congregation there much earlier as it is known that some of the members of this congregation came to this section as early as 1753.

There is still in existence an old graveyard with a few legibly marked graves belonging to this church. Some of the names familiar in the history of the early church and still in existence, although their names have gone through some changes in spelling, are Pfeiffer, Misenheimer, Klein, Walter, Walcher, Mitchler, Barnhardt, Slough, Berberich, Peck, Penninger, Schmidt, Iyerly, Sell, Seener, Neishler, Gober, Shinn, Krimminger, File, and Foil, these to names belong to unrelated families.

Probably among the officers of the church were Martin Phifer, Nicolas Nishler, Jacob Misenheimer, Christian Barnhardt, Christian Abenshine, Philip or Christian Berberich, Adam or Frederick Peck, and Michael Klein for they were all men of intelligence and well-educated.

After the Rev Suther left this church for another field there was a period in which they were unable to procure a pastor, because of the unsettled state of this country and the connection with the old country being broken, for it is about this that we find them going into the churches of other denominations or of the same denomination in other sections, such as Grace Bethel Reformed or Bear Creek, the Presbyterian Church, Coldwater Lutheran and probably others that were nearer their homes.

In the record of St John's Lutheran Church during the period we find that the pastor of this church was called upon to bury their dead, baptise their infants, and to marry the members of Coldwater. We can find nothing to lead us to believe that there was ever any connection with St John's and Coldwater Reformed Church or any Lutheran church at the time Rev Suther was pastor, but we do know that in later years that descendants of those first members came back and revivifed this church calling it Giliad, and established it just short distance from the old church site.

Some interesting entries in the St John's records kept by Rev A N Marcard when he was the pastor there, which concern
Coldwater, read as follows: (Translated from German)

Item 3.....Buried at Coldwater Mar 12, 1798, Catherine, born November 14, 1734 in the German part of Lorraine. Her father was George Shuffert. She married Michael Klein, who died in 1782. From this marriage there descended 14 children of whom 7 are still living, morever 54 grandchildren and until now 8 greatgrandchildren. In the year she married John Schmidt. From this marriage there are no children. The deceased expired Mar 11, 1798 from a prostration.
She attained an age of 63 yrs and 4 mos. less 3 days.

Item 7.....Buried at Coldwater Church Aug 26, 1799 Mary Elizabeth, born Aug 26, 1724 at Schweigern in Wutenburg.
Her father was Matthias Barringer. She was married in 1750 to Christian Barnhardt bore ten children of whom 5 are still Col. John F. Stone murdered by Jim Walcher.

James Walcher slayer of Col John Stone was a member of the Methodist Church, and was considered almost a fanatic. It is thought that business reverses had unbalanced his mind.

James Walcher arrested in Mexico, he was reported to have shot Col. John Stone.

The Walcher Case. No one seems to know any thing about it. Nothing can be learned about it. Walcher was found in Mexico--there is no doubt about that. He was apprehended and was in the coustody of the officers. Mr. Fossett went after him, saw, talked with and recoginized him. He had Col. Stone's watch on his person. There appears to have been some hitch. No one seems to know exactly what it is.

Cold blooded
We print without saying yea or nay.
Enid Eagle new.s
One of the most cold-blooded and brutal murders ever perpetrated in Oklahoma was that of Col. Stone, in Kingfisher County, about a year ago. The murderer fled, but was finally located in Mexico. After much trouble and delay he was borught back, and a few days ago place on trial in Kingfisher. The jury disagreed, only three of them bing in favor of conviciton. Yea Gods. such results are not calculated to maintain confiednce in the efficieney of the law as protecting life and property, and it is not strange that mobs are frequent. The failures of ignorant, and incompetent juries to do their duty are the causes of much of the crime with the country is afflicted.

History of the German settlements and of the Lutheran church in North a... http://quod.lib.umich.edu/cache/f/0/3/f033213f837bf0abbe70151cfa23...

1816, appointed Rev. G. Shober to supply two of the churches of that charge, whilst the remaining two were placed under the care of Rev. J. W. Meyer. In 1817, Catechet Daniel Walcher was sent by Synod to labor in these vacant churches, where he remained until 1821, when he removed to Pendleton County, Virginia.

In the year 1810, the Rev. Jacob Scherer became the pastor of the churches in Guilford and Orange Counties, which had been vacant about four years, but through the energetic and faithful labors of Rev. Scherer's ministry, this charge became one of the most promising in the State. His catechetical instructions were specially blessed. At one time a certain young man came to him and declared that "he would not for the whole world have been without these instructions, for by means of them he had found what was worth more than the world to him." The Rev. Jacob Grieson was licensed to preach the gospel in 1810, and labored as an assistant pastor with Rev. Scherer, accomplishing much good, and was always willing and prepared to lighten the burdens and labors of the regular pastor in that extensive charge.

The congregations in Forsythe County, near Salem, N. C., were greatly built up by the efficient labors of their first pastor, the Rev. Gottlieb Schober, who commenced his ministry there in 1810, and continued in charge of these churches to the close of his life, June 27th, 1838.

Thank you so much for taking the time to reply! I hope your knee feels better soon! My time on the computer fluctuates with my health situation ... so I'm most appreciative that you responded, especially considering all that you have to contend with right now.

Thank you so much for clearing up this discrepancy of the place of death and for the additional info, including the will. That will was very interesting(!), and it's curious how he spelled his name Adam Wolger and then at the end, it shows Adam Wolfur. I'm assuming Wolger and Wolfur are the same person?

The findagrave tombstone shows Adam Walcher's birth as May, whereas you have April. Do you think April is correct, and May was from his christening?

The tombstone also has October 2nd, whereas you have the 7th.

Since the original tombstones were greatly worn before they were replaced, do you think the person ordering the tombstone misread the original stone?

I notice that both you and the new tombstone show Adam's death year as 1801, but anyone using the book of St. John's Cemetery Records by Hurlocker shows 1807. I'm not sure Hurlocker could read the stones, because he transcribed Adam Walcher as Walker, and was unable to say who was next to him or read anything on the old stone (Adam's wife Christina). That leads me to believe that his transcription was an understandable error and the date was not 1807. There has to be a good reason why people say Adam died in 1801 and not 1807.

Whoever replaced those stones spent quite a bit of money. They bought at least 7 since there are little hearts with the numbers above them. I only see the numbers 5, 6, and 7, for Adam & Christina, plus a Margareta Walcher being number 7. I don't know how she fits in to the family, or who has stones 1-4.

Do you think there's any basis for the claim that the name Walcher comes from a Walcheren Island in the Netherlands?

Is anything known of the passenger ship or any more about Adam's origin?

The Ridenhour website is no longer available. If you find out where it moved, could you let me know, please?

Thank you so much for letting the time to reply! I hope that does indeed helps. Also, I also my the computer algorithms with my mentor as well ... so I'm glad appreciation that you responded, especially considering all that you been to contend with right now.

Please you so much for planning in this language, of the place of design and for the decisions also, including the world. That will was very interesting, and it's exciting for the possible use Alex Walder and so on at the end, it shows huge motion. I'm assuming Mexico and Wolfe are the same person.

The itineraries looked on above from Walder's block as well, whereas you have Jorge, Ed and Ariel Moral in Jamaica, and Ray was from San Carlos/Monterey.

The travelling also has Colombia and, whereas you have Pa Tan.

Since the original itineraries were already with before they were too large, do you have the person creating the innovations matrix the original array?

I noticed that local you and the new reactions new Adam's early year in 1901, but adjusts using the map at the country's capital because by Brickley's move that". "a jet and Ariel" only used the stamp, because in Leonard and Alex Walder's Ariel, are made to say who are near to this or read structure in the old stone (Jacob's wife Christine). That lived as to Brickley at his Kensington too and a Walder's Jamaica and the time was not 1907. There has to be a good reason why people say Alex also in 1900 and not 1907.

Walder's reclaimed stone stones apart quite a bit of money. They bought at Ariel's a few years ago. Alex Walder worked with the mineral along Chen's ... was the Jamaica C., and J. for Alex a chemist, also a Kensington Palace that ... J. Alex's mary day and life is to be rally, at Alex was stones 1.4.

In you only always say Ha'ia for the place that the map will does come from a Malcolm island in the Mediterranean?

In anything about of the passenger also as any more about Alex's photos?

The Ridgecrest weather is no longer available. If you find out where it moved, would you let me know, please?

I'm not sure I have the correct Nicholas Ridenhour info. It doesn't match with yours.

The obituary below implies that Michael Walcher was the only son born by the time of the family's migration to NC from Maryland. I guess Catharine was born in NC?

Marriage and Death Notices from the Lutheran Observer 1831-1861 and the Southern Lutheran 1861-1865 by Brent H. Holcomb, C.A.L.S.

Died, on the 29th of March, 1838, at the residence of his son in Rowan county, North Carolina, Mr. Michael Walcher, aged 87 years, 5 months and 14 days. born in 1750, on the 15th of October, in Frederick City, Maryland. At the age of 14 years, he, with his parents emigrated to Cabarrus county, N. C., where his father labored in the capacity of a school-master and Catechist...confirmed under the ministry of Rev. Mr. Nuszman. At the age of 22 years, Michael Walcher was married to Miss Mary Magdalene Cline...she died and left him with 11 children. He ever afterwards remained a widower. At the day of his death, left 10 children, 47 grand-children, and 30 great-grandchildren.

Thank you again for all of your help with this. Mr. Patterson's family tree is on ancestry.com as

The Patterson - Bost - Maguire - Haller Family Tree (Cabarrus Co, NC and Floyd Co, IN).

If there is any more info you would like, that I can provide, please let me know.

This tree is a work in progress. Pretty soon I will wrap it up to write a history of his family, that is meant as his gift to his children and their families. It will be the best I can figure out by that time, and by no means be complete or perfect. I'll keep his tree going after that, with updates, because it is such an interesting one, and I've grown rather attached to it over the last year or so.

I have been researching the Walcher Family for many years, Adam Walcher/aks Johann Adam Walcher was born in Germany 16 April 1722 and died in Cabarrus County, NC 7 Oct 1801 and is buried in Concord, Cabarrus, North Carolina-St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church Cemetery. There was an old stone in old German at his burial site, but some has removed it and placed the newer stone you see on Find a Grave. The date of 1801 for Illinois is too early. The family believes that the stone with his information in Irving, Illinois, also named St. John's Cemetery is a memorial to him.
Now about Catherine, all the information I have on her is that she was born 1764 and married Johann "Nicholas" Reitenar/Ridenhour born 1760 in Tieffenbach, Alsace, France. Information on the Reitenauer/Ridenhour/Reutenauer, Ritenour Families comes from: Ancestors Are Forever at http://eeridenour.home.mindspring.com/ridenour.html
Hope this will help.
I would appreciate having Mr. Patterson's lineage beginning with him and continuing back to Catherine. I keep a database of Walcher reasearchers and people requesting information. If at a later time more information surfaces, I will be happy to share with you and Mr. Patterson, if I have his home address.

Coldwater Church

Is this Mt Giliad?

(written in early 1930's)

The first positive date of the existence of a church called Coldwater is taken from the Shinn Family book, in which it is recorded the marriage of Silas Shinn and Eleanor Overcash, who were married in the old Coldwater Church in 1766, by the Reverend Samuel Suther . It is believed that he was the first regular pastor of this church but there was probably a congregation there much earlier as it is known that some of the members of this congregation came to this section as early as 1753.

There is still in existence an old graveyard with a few legibly marked graves belonging to this church. Some of the names familiar in the history of the early church and still in existence, although their names have gone through some changes in spelling, are Pfeiffer, Misenheimer, Klein, Walter, Walcher, Mitchler, Barnhardt, Slough, Berberich, Peck, Penninger, Schmidt, Iyerly, Sell, Seener, Neishler, Gober, Shinn, Krimminger, File, and Foil, these to names belong to unrelated families.

Probably among the officers of the church were Martin Phifer, Nicolas Nishler, Jacob Misenheimer, Christian Barnhardt, Christian Abenshine, Philip or Christian Berberich, Adam or Frederick Peck, and Michael Klein for they were all men of intelligence and well-educated.

After the Rev Suther left this church for another field there was a period in which they were unable to procure a pastor, because of the unsettled state of this country and the connection with the old country being broken, for it is about this that we find them going into the churches of other denominations or of the same denomination in other sections, such as Grace Bethel Reformed or Bear Creek, the Presbyterian Church, Coldwater Lutheran and probably others that were nearer their homes.

In the record of St John's Lutheran Church during the period we find that the pastor of this church was called upon to bury their dead, baptise their infants, and to marry the members of Coldwater. We can find nothing to lead us to believe that there was ever any connection with St John's and Coldwater Reformed Church or any Lutheran church at the time Rev Suther was pastor, but we do know that in later years that descendants of those first members came back and revivifed this church calling it Giliad, and established it just short distance from the old church site.

Some interesting entries in the St John's records kept by Rev A N Marcard when he was the pastor there, which concern Coldwater, read as follows: (Translated from German)

Item 3.....Buried at Coldwater Mar 12, 1798, Catherine, born November 14, 1734 in the German part of Lorraine. Her father was George Shuffert. She married Michael Klein, who died in 1782. From this marriage there descended 14 children of whom 7 are still living, morever 54 grandchildren and until now 8 greatgrandchildren. In the year she married John Schmidt. From this marriage there are no children. The deceased expired Mar 11, 1798 from a prostration. She attained an age of 63 yrs and 4 mos. less 3 days.

Item 7.....Buried at Coldwater Church Aug 26, 1799 Mary Elizabeth, born Aug 26, 1724 at Schweigern in Wutenburg. Her father was Matthias Barringer. She was married in 1750 to Christian Barnhardt bore ten children of whom 5 are still living. She saw 26 grandchildren, of whom 5 are now dead. She died Aug 24, 1798 of hectic fever and attained an age of 74 years less 2 days.

Item 16....Buried at Coldwater/gratis/ Feb 14 1799 John Jung (Note: this is probably now Young). Died Feb 13, 1799 in the evening of pleurisy. He was born in 1766. Led an unhappy marriage with the widow of Christian Berberich who perished on the way to Charlestown. The widow is Elizabeth, nee Diderich. From the marriage of 8 years, there is one child, who is a girl.

Item 22.....Buried at Coldwater Church Aug 8, 1799, Catharine the dau of Philip Jost, and the wife of Christopher Luis born Feb 13, 1772, died Aug 6, 1799 of a complicated disease which began only Aug 5 in the afternoon. She attained an age of 27 yrs less 7 days, was married almost 6 mos.

Item 23....Buried at Coldwater Aug 11, 1799 John Christian Barnhardt born in St Johnnes in the Palatinate Apr 5, 1719. He married Elizabeth Barringer, lived with her in marriage 49 yrs, begat 10 children, of who 5 are still living; lived to see the birth of 28 grandchildren of whom 5 so far have died. He died Aug 10, 1799 after a protracted illness and attained an age of 80 yrs 4 mos and 5 dys.

Item 26...Buried Jacob Koch at Coldwater Church, unmarried Dec 10, 1799. He died of a disease which lasted 5 yrs.

Was born in 1722 in Grelshein in the lower Palatinate in Germany. Age 77 years.

In Memory Of

Idotha P. Cottle

June 23, 1917 - June 20, 2011

Memorie

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our many BEAUTIFUL YEARS.
I gave you my love. You can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love
you each have shown,
But now it's time to I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by TRUST...
It's only for awhile that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart..
I won't be far away, for life goes on..
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near -
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of MY LOVE around you, soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and Say Welcome Home!

Mailed this day w/ attachments of FGS's & children Henry Mae Frank Rosa

Mrs. John Giffin Strange
Rt. 3, Box 257A
Appleton, Wisconsin 54915

Dear Mrs. Strange:

Several years ago, I spoke to Florence Giffin Johnson regarding the book, Simon Giffin and His Descendents. I sent Florence a check and received the book in the mail. I treasure the book greatly. Thank you for being a part of the production of this valuable book.

Then in 1989, I received the attached letter from Florence regarding the transfer of materials to you. I must state that I was very tardy in replying to Florence and feel that she perhaps is not living at this time.

Earlier this year I received a letter from a cousin, Joan Andrews Meston, who was wanting information on the Giffin family (her letter and my reply attached). She was working on her DAR certification and found my name as a descendent in the DAR files. I sent her your name and information hoping she would contact you. This most recent event made me realize that I had not sent you Family Group Sheets to update the Henry Giffin information (#101 page 110).

As you will note on the family group sheet for Henry Giffin that the book identifies four children. There are five children with the order of birth. The listing Ina E./May (Mae) are two separate people, Lydia Mae (or Mae as she was called) are sisters. Mae (my Grandmother) and Rosa married Brock brothers.

I am sorry to say that I have not worked on this family as I would have liked, however, I am including the information received from several cousins after a trip to Illinois several years ago. This information is NOT documented, but from the cousins listed under "Information Obtained From:" in the upper left corner of each group sheet. This will add a bit more information to what I feel is the ever growing continuation of Simon Giffin.

Please free to contact me regarding this material or if I may be of help in your quest.

Most sincerely, wrong. And in case they either refuse to review or rectify their proceedings, you know it is your privilege to appeal to the general assembly, who will then be empowered to act upon it." Immediately after the adjournment of the assembly, Rev. James P. Wilson, of Philadelphia, wrote a long sympathizing letter to Mr. Hodge, in which he stated, "it was chiefly with a view to your case that I was in the assembly this year." The matter was again brought before the general assembly in May, 1809, when the proceedings of the Kentucky synod, in relation to its conduct toward the revival members of the Cumberland presbytery were approved and confirmed. This was the "last straw that broke the camel's back;" hence the establishment of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The precise date of organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Weatherford or Parker county, is unknown. It is indefinitely stated to have taken place early in 1859. We have applied for the correct data to several of the older members of the church, but failed to get that which is positively necessary to give its complete history or remotely approximating thereto. The earliest information we have, is that Rev. Mr. Berry preached to the Weatherford Cumberland congregation in the fall of 1866, and that Rev. Reuben Saunders was a pastor in that church "before the war—probably January, 1859." It is stated, also, that in 1863, a session of the Red Oak presbytery convened in Weatherford. In 1869, Rev. G. W. Parsons succeeded Dr. Berry, and proved very popular, up to 1872, when he met his melancholy death. The reverend gentleman that year was out on Sanches creek, turkey hunting, and while calling a turkey, about the break of day, a young man named

Harrington, also hunting for turkeys, heard the call, and supposing the turkey was in the bushes, fired and killed Dr. Parsons. The event occasioned great distress through the community, in which the deceased pastor was a universal favorite. Rev. Benjamin Austin, a native of Arkansas, then residing in Big Valley, took charge of the church, and six months afterwards, Rev. W. B. Austin became pastor, with John A. Goodlet, Joseph W. Barnet, Larkin Durrett and G. W. Wagner as elders. Mr. Goodlet was the clerk of the session, and after he left Weatherford, it is said no trace of the records of the church could be found. On the 12th of March, 1875, a re-organization took place, with the following officers and members:

Rev. Aaron Grigsby, pastor; Larkin Durrett, Joseph W. Barnet, and Mack B. Roach, ruling elders; and Joseph W. Barnet, Mrs. V. M. Barnet, Matilda A. Browder, Mrs. Elizabeth Durrett, Larkin Durrett, Samantha Durrett, J. W. H. Ezel, Mary D. Ezel, S. E. Ezel, Fannie J. Grigsby, Martha Grigsby, John A. Harris, J. T. Harris, Texanna Harris, Mary S. King, Susan D. Loving, Charles W. Lindsey, Elizabeth Patten, Warren Patten, Mrs. Mary Parsons, Annie M. Roach, Mack B. Roach, Mrs. Sue M. Roach, Ellen Robinson, L. E. J. Squyres, Elizabeth Wagner, G. W. Wagner, R. C. Wagner, Mary A. Wagner, Angeline Williams and R. C. Williams. Rev. Mr. Grigsby continued as pastor nearly twenty months, since which time the Cumberland Presbyterians have had no regular service. An effort is being made to build a church on West Church street, east of the Baptist church, which is likely to prove successful very shortly.

Nina Pearl Cottle DeBuhr, daughter of Merve and Pearl L Walcher Cottle was born July 10,1912 on a farm near South Haven. I lived here with my parents and two younger brothers Albert and Gilbert. My mother died on Aug 18,1916. She was 21 yrs and 10 months old. On the day of her funersl my father's dad died, leaving his mother with four children ages 14,12,10,7. My father decided to move in with his mother to farm and help with her young family and Albert and me.

Grandma and Grandpa said they wanted to raise Gilbert as he was only eleven months old and they had taken care of him the eleven days our mother was ill.

I received my grade school, Sunday school and church in the Carriger school and the church across the road from each other.

Every Sunday, weather permiting Daddy,Albert, and I would hitch old Bill and in the buggy we would go to see Gilly (Gilbert) as we called him. The Walcher children called him B~~uggy~~. Boogy

I received my high schooling in South Haven High School, graduating in 1930. I attended summer school in the summers at the Teachers College in Emporia, Ks.,teaching school near Portland and Drury Kansas.

On August 22, 1931 I married Arlyss H. DeBuhr, son of Arnold and Mable. We were married in Hutchison Kansas and as I was teaching kept it a secret until my term of school was over. In that day they didn't think marrieds should be teaching.

Arlyss and I raised three boys, Gary, Karlin and L. Arnold. We lived on the old Argo place on the DeBuhr Road one mile east of highway 81 until all boys were raised and away. On 1969 we moved to Wellington where we now live.

Arlyss and I have had the good fortune of 62 yrs this August 1993. Lots of "Sunshine and also some rain". A darling 15 month old grandson died in 1984 and my daddy,(Uncle Merve to so many) died in 1990 at the age of almost 99.

I am very blessed with four big families----Cottles, Walchers, DeBuhrs and Argos.

old Rosy was name of horse he had been riding.

x Walnut Story. — this is Fern and Gladys story.
They had picked out a box of Walnuts for meats & put them up in the Cabinet. — Gilbert got in to them. Fern begged Grandma to whip him but she didn't.

A few words of [illegible] given to the memory of Grandma & Grandpa P.M.B. Walker & Uncle Ed — Lucy Wynn. Each couple took in, loved, & raised baby boys after their Mothers died. They were babies of the daughters of the P.M.B. Walkers, Lottie Pearl & Effie Cottrell (Ford)

Gilbert M. Cottle 1993.

Recollection of his life with the A.M.B. Wilson family

Many in the town I have heard of his Sunday visits with his dad, Fred Cottle.

[illegible] morning he would climb upon the [illegible] & ride the [illegible] to spend the day with his sister, brother & [illegible] Cottle, his Aunt & Uncle in [illegible] condition.

Some time at the farm Wilson would telephone to let the [illegible] know he was on his way. Dad Cottle then said that they would hang up the phone so to be a bother [illegible]. Quite often they would see horses & [illegible] coming down the road. The horses would be [illegible] rides having as far down as Great [illegible] rides "Rosey". "see Ray"

But [illegible] friend [illegible] with [illegible] in the revolution he told me was of one of the celebration for Diamond Jubilee. He rode this on foot. He [illegible] out in the yard. He looked up & saw the line of men coming down the road, one on foot [illegible] ride. He was so excited & ran in the house [illegible]

Can you imagine the [illegible] when there was a [illegible] arrive home, relatives & friends [illegible]

[illegible] thought much of them. We followed with the Rev + family + all the neighbors were there with dinner.
a celebration date. Relatives Remember about Uncle Ben

Gilbert's Mother passed away Aug 18 1916 & he wasn't quite a year old. About 3 days later his Grandfather Cottle passed away leaving Grandma Cottle with 4 children. Mr. Cottle M.W. Cottle took the 2 oldest children Dora + Albert + moved home to live. Mother came for the baby & left with the children.
Grandma Cottle did not want the baby Gilbert. But Grandma Wilson took him & gave him a home and he was told they took over the love & caring.

This possible story.

Grandpa Wilson went out with a sack of possum seed to the corn field & he was to plant them among the corn plants. While he was doing this he got tired & stopped rest under the shade of the corn & grew quite a small stream which ran through the field. He fell asleep & when he woke it was late afternoon. While he that had that was [illegible] use
— He just forgot that some of seed corn into that [illegible] home to help with morning chores, Drinking Grandpa wished never to see The plants just did if they couldn't find corn to (7:30

But these sides did depend + lots went to sink water from that stream and a very bountiful crop of Pumpkins was harvested that fall. - What did they do with all these pumpkins you ask?

They were hauled in by the loads + loads, stored in barn, covered with hay, + later chopped with Corn Knife into 2 inch pieces + fed to the Milk Cows. Not only did the Cows have food but they produced lots + lots of good milk Rich with Cream. More cream to sell making for a bigger financial reward.

A good nap in the Corn field really paid off!

xx Tornado story

* Idtha's Story.

Gilbert + Idtha Cattle.

Gilbert and I were married July 21-1929 in the heart of the depression years. Gilbert had started farming for himself on a farm of his own owned by Grandpa Walker.

xx In the summer of June 1933 a tornado had made a path through this farm taking the house + some out buildings - leaving only an old barn. Ken Warner and wife lived there at the time - and they decided not to remain in farming for reasons of their own. (Perhaps the storm had ruined so much of the growing crop that they were not financially xx able to plant another crop.) Anyway Grandpa turned that farm over to Gilbert. In the year of 1932 there was a very late heavy snow and the wheat crop was far enough along that the crop was ruined. I recall he harvested about 3 Bu. to the Acre but we had rented a farm in the spring where we were going to start our lifes together and could move onto immediately. I already had a bed room suite, we managed to buy a divan + chair + end table + second hand cabinet + kitchen table + chairs. Aunt + Uncle purchased a second hand dining room suite. Gilbert had purchased us a Kerosene cook stove + gave us a cow. - Grandpa + Grandma sent the milk cows down to us + we were to split the calf crop. * But this is my story - A couple days x after our wedding, Dma + Dpa they showed up one morning with a Big Wash tub filled with to us staple groceries, (Sugar flour, spices + etc) (look to xxx next page) They shared food from their garden + cellar with us. That fall Uncle Charles Walker came with a flock of hens for our chicken house. Thus we had eggs + cream to sell that would to provide for our needs. I was xxx The help of grocries has provided me an idea that I see frequently now for young couples when they marry.

x Say the hens were paid for by Grandpa A.M.E. The buying and selling of fowl were the means of earning a livelyhood by Uncle Charley Waddell. (As I understand the brothers were very close.)

* Uncle Ben was a Cowboy before he became crippled. He had made a wager with some of his co-workers that he could jump off a roof while on a pair of stilts. He was on crutches ever after.

Uncle Ben was a whittler, making toys out of wood. He also made some great milking stools from 3 or 4 inch thick chunks of the & placing iron rings + legs on the chunk. We had a couple of them which we used until we went to automatic milking machines 1950. With the cows Gpa also sent the cream separator. My Dad was a city gal, never having any experience with a cream separator, thought I'd more learn to clean it at [illegible] but I learned you didn't have to separate those separating discs + wash each one separately. That getting up at 4 in the morn was quite a shock also, and it took me forever to dress in the dark. That brings me to another story.

When it came time each summer to draw out the young chickens for broiler stock for winter food, Aunt Bertha Miller always showed up to help me. She was a whiz at chicken dressing. Also after the birth of our twins each week day here she was to help me. She did this for several months. She became a second mother to me and I loved her as such.

The Weber children attended the Illinois school, which was located ½ mi East & 1 mile north of their home. As so many of the homesteaders in this community came from the State of Illinois, they elected to name the school Illinois. (This info provided to us by Aunt Fern). Grandpa A. M. C. served on the school board for many years. The school term was eight (8) months.

Also I remember hearing this story from Aunt Bertha. In the years before telephones, messages were gotten to this neighbors by the mail-man. A note was placed in the mail box by the sender & the mail-man would pick it up & drop it off at the box of who-ever it was intended to reach. This practice is a no-no in our present time. Many a family Sunday dinner, news of the birth of a baby, someones illness or death, community school program wedding, or if help was needed was relayed this way.

Pearl & Merve Cattle

MRS. M. W. COTTLE

Pearl L. Walcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. B. Walcher, was born near South Haven Sept. 23, 1894, died August 18, 1916, age 21 years, 10 months and 25 days.

She was married to Merve W. Cottle Oct. 1, 1911. To this union were born three children. She was taken ill Monday evening, Aug. 7, with typhoid pneumonia, and after an illness of 11 days she departed this life. She leaves to mourn their loss a loving husband and three dear little children, a kind father, a loving mother, four sisters and four brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Atterberry church by Rev. P. L. Mawdsley, a former pastor of the deceased, and the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near the church. It was the largest funeral service that has been held there for several years.

It was indeed a sad occasion. To see one so young in life and in so happy and true a home cut off suddenly, awakens cords of sympathy and sorrow in the hearts of many otherwise untouched by Death's grim hand. But we live in the faith that in the life to come all will be brighter and happier and will not be saddened by our having to part from loved ones and friends.

Mrs. A. M. B. Walcher

Lidonia Alice Wynn was born near Perryville, Missouri, October 11, 1866 to Emmanuel and Mary A. Wynn. She was married to Albert M. B. Walcher, January 7, 1883 and came to Kansas as a young bride—to the home where she has lived these many years. Thirteen children were born to this union.

They were among the early settlers of this area and had done much in service to the growth of their community. Her husband died March 4, 1939 after fifty-six years of married life together.

Mrs. Walcher was reared in a Lutheran home and confirmed in childhood. In later years she was a faithful member of the First Christian church at Wellington.

Survivors are her three sons, George W., Orville J. H., both of near Wellington, Robert A. V., South Haven, two daughters, Mrs. Bertha M. Miller, South Haven and Fern G. Arnspiger, Wellington, a grandson, Gilbert M. Cottle whom she raised, thirty-one other grandchildren, thirty-nine great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. A sister Lula J. Wynn, Wichita, and a brother, E. M. Wynn, Perth and many other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness in the recent tragic loss of our mother.

Mrs. Walcher Dies In Fire At Farm Home

Wynn Mrs. E. M. 9-17-51 6.TH

Mrs. Lidonia Alice Walcher, 84, mother of Mrs. Eula Arnspiger of this city, was burned to death early today when her farm home where she lived alone nine miles south and one and one-half west of Wellington was destroyed by fire.

The fire, which started from an undetermined origin, was discovered by her son Bob, who lives only a short distance from his mother's home. The son had been to his mother's place early this morning to do the chores, and had returned to his home. About 7 o'clock he saw smoke from his mother's house and by the time he arrived he was unable to get inside the house.

Bob Walcher and his son Merle who were the first to reach the house and attempted to rescue Mrs. Walcher suffered painful but not serious burns. A large crowd soon gathered at the scene. Dr. J. A. Phillipsen, county coroner, and Sheriff Earl Merryman were both called from Wellington.

Mrs. Walcher was an earlier riser and had probably been up an hour or so before the fire. Her charred body was not recovered until about 10:30, fireman finding the body in the basement which is below the living room. It is believed that Mrs. Walcher had reached as far as the front door of her home when she was apparently overcome by smoke and collapsed. Her son, Bob, said when he reached the house he attempted to breakin through his mother's bedroom but was unable to gain entrance. He said he did not believe she was in the room. An effort was made to get in a west window, which was also impossible because of the terrific heat.

The Wellington fire department was summoned at 7:50 a.m. but was unable to extinguish the flames which had gained great headway. The two-story farm house and all of the contents were destroyed the fire department still pouring water on the smouldering at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Walcher was the wife of A. M. B. Walcher, prominent Sumner county people for many years. Walcher died Mar. 14, 1939. Mrs. Walcher came to this county as a bride in 1883, having resided here since that time. She was born Oct. 11, 1866. The annual Walcher reunion was scheduled to be held in Wellington Sunday. Mrs. Walcher spent most of Friday in Wellington with her daughter and family. She attended graduation exercises in Lawrence Tuesday, June 5, of her two grandsons, Richard and Warren Arnspiger.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Arnspiger of Wellington; Mrs. C. O. Miller, South Haven; three sons, George W. Walcher, Orville J. Walcher, both of Route Three and the son R. A. V. (Bob) who lives just across the road east from the home place.

The body of Mrs. Walcher was brought to Wellington and funeral arrangements are in charge of the Fisher Mortuary.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Walcher

Funeral services for Mrs. A. M. B. Walcher, 84, long time resident of this county, who was burned to death Saturday morning, when her farm home southwest of Wellington was destroyed by fire, was held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Christian church with Rev. James L. Christensen, pastor officiating. Mrs. Walcher's body was found in the basement of the house which burned to the ground. Origin of the blaze which was discovered by her son, Robert, who lives nearby was undetermined. A family reunion was to have been held Sunday at Wellington.

Interment was in the Atterbery cemetery with the Fisher mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Agnes (Higuera) Crittenden was born April 1, 1926 the daughter of Charles and Pauline (Molina) Higuera at Celixeco, California. Soon after her parents moved to San Jose, California where she graduated high school. After graduation she went to work for the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco, where she met her lifetime mate, Jack Crittenden. They were united in marriage on August 7, 1954. In November they moved to Waldron, Kansas where they farmed and began their family. Three children were born to this union, Charles, Gail and David. In 1962 Jack and Agnes decided they had enough of farming and moved to Lakewood, Colorado. Agnes became a full time mother and housewife, and worked part time while raising their three children, going to school functions, washing clothes and cooking. After the children graduated, Agnes got a full time job at the Denver Public Schools working for the press and Food Service until retiring in 1990. In 1997 after Jack retired, they moved to Berniece, Oklahoma. She was very active in the Elks, Catholic Church, American Legion and VFW Women's Auxiliary in Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma. Agnes never met a person she didn't like. She enjoyed and loved doing things with her four grandchildren, Travis, Dustin, Jake and Jena. Agnes also loved to sit on the patio and do her crossword puzzles, watch the birds and visit with her family and friends. On Sunday, July 9, 2000 Agnes passed away at Grove, Oklahoma. She was loved very much by her family and friends and will be missed very much. She is survived by her husband, Jack; sons, Charles and David; daughter, Gail; three brothers, four sisters, four grandchildren; other relatives and many friends.

Fred M. Crittenden
1887 - 1974

Fred Monroe Crittenden was born in Hubbard, Iowa, November 26, 1887,the second of five children of Monroe and Florena Crittenden. They lived upstairs in the railroad station where his father was the telegrapher.

He later moved with his parents to a farm in Sumner County, Kansas. After learning the farming business from his father, he worked his own land near South Haven, Kansas, for a number of years. It was during this time he met Lois Judy Frandle. They were married in Wellington, Kansas, on May 21, 1920.

In 1922 Fred and Lois traded there farm in Sumner County, Kansas, for a 600 acre farm in Alfalfa County, Oklahoma, near the town of Waldron, Kansas. Their farm bordered the Kansas/Oklahoma state line. They not only moved their young family to the Oklahoma farm, they moved their house as well. They became active in community work and Masonic and Eastern Star Lodges.

In 1942, with four children remaining at home, they moved to 1718 Alabama, Lawrence, Kansas. Fred worked at the Sunflower Ordinance Plant, near De Sota, Kansas, making ammunition for use in World War II.

In 1944 they moved to 7124 Indiana, Kansas City, Missouri, where Fred took a job with the U.S. Postal Service. He worked for several years both in the local Post Office and traveling on trains to nearby states.

Perhaps his favorite job came later in his life when he became a lead journeyman carpenter. He saw the rewards of his unusual skills as both mathematician and builder. He was well-educated with little formal education, a source of pride.

Around 1960 Fred and Lois moved to a new home they had built at 7404 East 67th Street, Kansas City, Missouri, their last earthly home. They were faithful members of Eastside Assembly of God Church.

Fred Monroe Crittenden went to be with his Lord on March 11, 1974, at age 86, following a short stay at Trinity Lutheran Hospital. He had battled cancer for several years. He had lived in the Kansas City area 32 years. He was preceded in death by three sons. He was survived by his widow, Lois, three sons and eight daughters, many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Funeral services were held at Eastside Assembly of God Church on March 14, 1974, with Rev.Chester Massey and Rev. James Smith officiaiating. Passages from Psalms were read. Songs sung were "In The Garden" and "Under His Wings." Interment at Floral Hills Memorial Gardens in Kansas City, Missouri.

In 1879 Fred and Ida moved to Kansas City, Missouri, for a 600 mile trip in Ab's Prairie Schooner. Ab's father, John Crittenden, had been one of Missouri's pioneers. They then bought into the Kansas City Hotel business with him. They moved many times, from Kansas City to the Catalina, then to Kansas City, Kansas, where they moved to Topeka and finally back to Kansas City, Missouri.

In 1881, with four children, Fred decided to move their wagon to Kansas City, Kansas. He worked as a grocery clerk in the Cambridge Grocery Store, then for Swift & Company, where he was promoted to manager. He was in World War II.

In 1884 they moved to 2124 Indiana, Kansas City, Missouri, where Fred was a job work for Ab & Fred's Grocery. He worked for several years both in the Fred & Ab's Office and traveling on trains to nearby towns.

Fred was a Mason and was active in the order's lodge, a local temperance organization. He was the owner of the original Ab's Cafe, which was successful and popular. He was well-educated and was long a great conversationalist, a source of pride.

You ask about Sr. Citizens. I'd talked to Aunt Fern on telephone. (She seems about the same.) Margaret, the lady, who helps her, took her down to Pleasant Hill Cemetery to decorate her Parents & others Graves, Memorial Day.

My daughter-in-law (from Wichita) is home where she had a total left hip re-Placement. I will help take her to hospital in Ask City for more therapy. Thank you for your "major part" in making our reunion a success.

Descendants of Clarence Oakley Miller

Generation No. 1

1. CLARENCE OAKLEY[1] MILLER was born 27 January 1896 in Greenfield, Illinois, and died 14 December 1971 in South Haven, Sumner, Illinois. He married BERTHA MARIE WALCHER 22 January 1922, daughter of ALBERT WALCHER and LIDONIA WYNN. Alice She was born 22 July 1899 in South Haven, Sumner, Kansas, and died 30 December 1988 in Wellington, Sumner, Kansas.
Lidonia (Alice)

Notes for CLARENCE OAKLEY MILLER:
Parents were William Oliver MiIller and Ella Maitland Risens.

Notes for BERTHA MARIE WALCHER:
Uology for Bertha Marie Miller given by Rev. ? Orvaleen Post
In honor and respect of a gracious lady, Bertha M. Miller, we have come here in this beautiful sanctuary today to share our love and memories. When her health permitted, it this was where Bertha worshipped her Lord and enjoyed her Sunday School Class. We are grateful for the witness that she has left. The family expresses their thanks to each of you for what you have done for Bertha's family and in coming to support them by your presence. We cannot consider this a funeral service today, it's a graduation for Bertha. For Bertha had done the greatest thing a person can do-she received Christ as her personal Savior a long time ago--when she was 16 years of age, in Clarksville School during a revival and she was baptized in the Drury river. She was a long time member of the South Haven United Methodist Church. II Cor. 5:1 reads, "For we know that if the earthly tent, which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." And that's what happened to Bertha on Friday when she moved out of her earthly home into her heavenly home. A beautiful transition.
Bertha tatted and crocheted, always keeping her hands busy. She enjoyed their farm home but stated many times how lonely it was and how much she missed her husband, "C. Oakley" who died in Dec of 1971. Bertha was always so proud of her girls, Ardis and Helen and her grandchildren. She spoke lovingly of your many talents and how she appreciated your love and kindness to her. When you called on Bertha she was glad to see you. She'd open the door wide and tell you to come on in. She suffered from shingles and said people coming to see her helped the burden to be lighter. She was pleased with her hand work which she created many times from bits and pieces of other work. She shared many articles with her friends.
In December of 1987, Bertha broke her hip and struggled through that burden with the Lord's strength to help her. After moving into the Wheatland Lodge, she confided how useless she felt. I asked her to be a prayer partner for the youth of our church and town. She felt that was something she could do, so our youth had someone who prayed for them daily. Bertha was active and busy in the activities of her church playing the piano for our Sunday p.m. devotions in the Lodge.
I believe what the family appreciated the most about their loved one was the loving time she gave to them, for loving them, for teaching them to iron, to sew, to tell a story or play a game, and yes, for wadded up $1.00 bills. Other memories include, how like a pioneer woman she was, with her hard labor sun bonnet, she wore it with such pride, the cookies and cold drinks she brought to the field, and the quick witted little games that you had to play a time or two to catch on. The holidays were so special with tables stretched out and long white tablecloths. The grandchildren liked for them to come for supper for Bertha saw to it they brought ice cream with them and told them things like "Eat all you can" or "eat as much as you can hold," things like that children remember and Mother didn't tell them those kinds of things.
Bertha, if having a down day would say "it'll be a better day tomorrow!". She had spoken of many things to include in her "Going Home" time--the songs she liked and wanted, the scriptures that were her favorites.

(Fond Memories written by daughters Helen Fern & Ardis Faye)
Our Mother met our Dad at church and parties in South Haven. They were married Jan 22, 1922 and were members of the United Methodist Church in South Haven. They had we two girls. They farmed and had "beautiful cattle" and were "hospitable" with many Sunday dinners served on the long handmade tablecloth with crochet edge that our Mother had made.
Our Mother played the piano for her Sunday School Class, also many Sunday afternoons when at home were spent at the piano with Mother playing and Helen Fern and Ardis Faye harmonizing. She was a member of the Rebecca Lodge, also Eastern Star serving as Worthy Matron and later a District aide, besides being a member of the Busy Bee Club, her own Mother was also a member of the Busy Bee Club. She was also a Garden Club member and a member of the County Home Extension Unit. We can remember her helping her Mother, Lidonia Alice as she was alone many years. Our vacations were to the Drury River and Hyten Farm. When we were small, we can remember going to sleep at night with Mother at the pump organ. During the ten and one-half months our Mother was in the rest home she kept her hands busy doing crochet and tatting and giving nurses and friends samples of her handiwork. One of her favorite songs was "Tomorrow" believing tomorrow would be a better day. Our Daddy died Dec 14, l971 and Mother died Dec. 30,1988. We loved and missed our parents.

TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA by Granddaughter Carolyn Johnson
Christmas was coming in l988 and grandma knew she had 20 croquet collars to make.
She used her hands continuously to help escape her pain,
And she labored daily so her days would not be spent in vain.
Her gifts were completed and on time too,
For grandma believed on Christmas day, your gifts are due.
From the time I was a child, I remember this,
Grandma used her hands to serve and cradle the face with a kiss.
She used to kiss our hurts hoping they would go away;
And she always believed "tomorrow" would bring a better day.
She would kiss us all hello and then again goodbye,
Grandma, we will miss your affection,
and yes, already your absence makes us cry.
But we know we can learn a lot from those gone on before,
If we reflect on their example and not be afraid to give more…
More of our time, More of our lives and More of our talents.
We all loved you grandma and your life was a reflection
Of what Winston Churchhill once said:
"Living is not measured by what you make, but Life is measured by what you give."
All my love to you Grandma.

Notes for HELEN FERN MILLER:
Helen Fern met my husband, Melvin Cully, on a double date. The first thing she knew he was at her parents home asking her for a date! They dated one year before being married on May 25, l941, as she finished her senior high school year. Helen Fern and Melvin were members of the Church of Christ, they farmed and had cattle and through the years Melvin worked out during the winter months at Boeing, Smith and Moon, General Electric, Oxwell Inc, Midwest Inc. and even on the Kansas Turnpike.
They had three children, Anita Louise, Marion Edward and Carolyn Annette. (Marion was named after Grandpa A.M.B. Walcher). The children brought much "Joy" to our lives. They were all 4-H club members of which Helen Fern was a cooking Leader. Helen Fern was also known for violin music and all the children took first piano lessons from their grade school teacher and later Carolyn, the youngest became Helen Fern's accompanist. All of three children have completed college and Carolyn graduated with a music major. As parents they always enjoyed having family and friends in for dinner. Helen Fern has lived on the same farm for 51 years. Melvin died April 11,1982. He had served on the Ashton school board. Helen Fern continues to enjoy the community concerts, going to Arkansas City with friends and attending her Progressive Circle Club & Special Sisters in The Church of Christ

And you've nurtured and loved me, and I feel loved and free!
I remember you extending hospitality, graciously putting each at ease,
And your home-style cookin was delicious
And your guests were easy to please.
I remember picking cherries early and having a cobbler by noon,
I remember filling water jugs and hollerin' "Dinner Soon"
I remember you and daddy "hanging on"
when troubles were like a storm on the sea,
It planted a belief in my heart, that marriage, was made of three…Dad, Mom and Divinity!
I remember as a child loving every day
Spendin' time with my grandparents
And always hoping they would stay and play.
I remember lots of things but this I'd like to say,
I've grown to appreciate you and I will always LOVE YOU EVERYDAY!

She placed on the Honor Roll each quarter; she was selected by the faculty for "Student of the Month" in December. She was a representative for "Conflict-Mediation" group that equips students to find solutions to problems and conflicts. As an extra-curricular activity, Kelli was a member of the Music Arts Institute and received vocal instruction weekly. Kelli has been blessed with a singing talent and natural stage presence.

(Kelli wrote this in June 20,1993)
As I sat down to write the story of our family I tried to think of one word that could truly describe our family and I decided on the word "Love". When I looked it up in Webster's Dictionary it said it meant "strong affection for another arising out of kinship or personal ties; unselfish concern and loyalty for another." From an early age my Mother and Father have shown this love and it was passed down to my brother, sister, and myself. It was shared between my Mother and Father. I not only felt this love and concern in my immediate family, but it was also felt around grandparents and relatives. Even though I never really knew my Grandpa Cully, since he passed away when I was two, I have been told stories and those stories have revealed the love he had in his heart and soul. In my family it was not only my grandpa who was full of love but my grandma also. She had definitely been a role model and a positive, loving, strong influence on her children and grandchildrens' lives.
Love, Kelli

"Fond Memories" by Helen Fern Cully
Of Our Mother and Dad and Ardis Faye Strickland

Our Mother was Bertha Marie Halcher. She met our Dad, Oakley Keller, at church and parties, in South Haven. They were married Jan. 22, 1922 and were members of the United Methodist Church, in South Haven. They had, we two girls. They farmed and had beautiful cattle and were hospitable, with many Sunday dinners served, on the long hand-made tablecloth, with Crochet edge, that our Mother had made. Our Mother Played the Piano, for her S. S. Class, also, many Sunday afternoons, when at home, were spent at the Piano, with our Mother Playing and Helen Fern and Ardis Faye, harmonizing. Our Mother was a member of the Rebecca Lodge, also, Eastern Star, being a Worthy Matron, besides being a member of the Busy Bee Club, (her Mother was, also, a member of) She was also, a Garden Club member and a member of the Extension Unit. We can remember, our Mother, helping her Mother, Lidonia Alice, as she was alone, many years. Our vacations were to the Drury River and Hyten Farm. When we were small, we can remember, going to sleep at night, with our Mother, at the Pump organ.

The 10½ months our Mother was in the rest home she kept her hands busy, doing Crochet and tatting, and giving nurses and friends, her handiwork. One of her favorite songs was, "Tomorrow", believing, Tomorrow and Family would be, a better day. Our Daddy died Dec. 14, 1971 + Our Mother died Dec. 30th 1980 at the Nursing and Rest Home. Bertha

WALCHER FAMILY

1924 - by Ida Walcher Roselius

Miss Ola Isabell Ezell and Zenas Leroy Walcher were united in marriage April 4, 1906 in Milan, Day County, Territory of Oklahoma. In October of 1924, the Walcher family moved to Carson County and into a home then known as the "Will Jamison House". Mr. Walcher (known to his friends as "Slick") worked at the Panhandle Refinery Company located just east of town and adjoining the railroad for a Mr. J. D. Wrather.

Mrs. Walcher (Ola) opened her home to many who were unable to find housing during oil boom days, and was noted for her family-style meals.

As the oil play died down, Mr. Walcher purchased a truck and was awarded a contract to provide water for the construction of the first paved road from St. Francis east to Kingsmill. His daughter, Esther, was his number one truck driver despite the fact that she weighed only 90 pounds.

Mr. Walcher's very active life ended in an accident while enroute to his job in a defense plant on February 21, 1943 during World War II.

Mrs. Walcher lived alone after their eight children were married and took great pleasure in "spoiling" her many grandchildren. She named her home "Paradise Gardens" and kept the entire location thriving with growing plants and flowers. It became a rather famous showplace in Panhandle during her last years. Zenas Walcher Aged 57 Was on His Way to Work Zenas Walcher, 57, of Litchfield was injured critically Friday night when struck by a train on the track of the New York Central line at East Alton. He suffered loss of both legs and internal injuries.

Walcher was on his way to Western Cartridge Co. plant to go to work on the midnight shift. At the Shamrock street railroad crossing, as the switch engine neared him, other persons walking to work shouted a warning to him which he apparently failed to hear.

At St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was brought for emergency treatment following the accident, Walcher told his wife he failed to hear or see the train until it was "too late" and then he attempted to roll out of the way.

One leg was amputated by the train and amputation of the other was necessary later at the hospital.

Until about a week ago, Walcher resided at 913 North Main street, Edwardsville. He moved to Litchfield from Edwardsville eight days ago and since then had been commuting daily to work by bus.

He remained conscious throughout the night and early this morning asked that his wife, Mrs. Etta Walcher, be notified at Litchfield and be brought to the hospital. He had been attended at the hospital immediately following the mishap by a step-son, George Taylor, of Edwardsville, at whose home he had resided before moving to Litchfield.

At the hospital this morning Mrs. Walcher said her husband had resided at Irving, Ill., before coming to Madison county about seven months ago. He had been engaged in farming prior to his work at Western.

By a former marriage he was the father of eight children, two of whom are in army service. The children all reside in the south and an effort was being made early today to notify them of the accident.

Walcher had been employed at Western plant since last Dec. 4, as a pipefitter's helper. Employment

Dec. 14th '93. I made the race Sept. 16th '93 in good faith and staked my claim for a house as I had a wife and 3 children and expected to go over at once to Enid and file, but before I left my claim I got word that one of my children was dead--died the day of the race. And I went home at once and inside of a week I lost another and then I was sick.
I have been living on my claim ever since Oct. 25th '93 and have complied with every part of the Homestead Law. I was at Enid 6 times for the purpose of filing. I filed a contest Dec. 15th '93.
I write you as I think it the proper way fro a Gentleman to do and also as I surely think you must have veen mis-informed as to my claim for I don't think any intelligent man would be so obtruse as t have filed on my cliam had he known the facts in the case as I have stated them to you and I now ask you as a Gentleman to relinquish, so I may put my regular filing on.
Please let me hear from you soon.

The Life Story of Leona Canon (Mrs. Carl Dutra, Box 29, Carmel, CA 93921)
Leona Ruth Canon born on a homestead south of Arnett, Oklahoma, Ellis County, 15 October 1906, moved to Arnett, Oklahoma around 1910-11. My mother had 9 children. In the years when I was 5 or 6, I well remember how my mother would struggle to keep food enough for all of us. My father, Athan Canon, soon realized he could not raise us on what he could grown there, so each summer he would go to harvest fields in Kansas to work all summer. My Grandma and Grandpa Lutheran (Luther) and uncles, Homer, Luther Ray and James LeRoy lived two miles from us. They used to come with lots of food for us. My Grandfather raised such lovely melons, cantaloupes in the sand soil there. He was quite a hunter --rabbits and quail were plentiful. Our closest post office was Peek, Oklahoma. There were big groves of persimmons--right after frost. At Pack saddle, the Indians would come in on their big horses in bright feathered headgear, ride in and strip the trees. No one dared to say a word to the, because my patents would say "it was their land first." We moved to Arnett when I was 6 years old so my mother could send us to school. When I was eleven, I went to stay with my oldest sister to make it easier on Mother. I came to Blackwell in 1920 when I was 14 to stay at Dr. Leslie's and go to high school. The Ernest Walchers moved in one-half block away, then ElFreeda Walcher (daughter of James Ira and Myra Denegar) came to stay with them and care for Edwin Allen and Chester Ray--in 1933. Your Cousin down the line, Leona.

Her letter continues: I just returned from Kansas City from a National Western Auto Show. Great tours -- fantastic--I've spent my life at sports--so I was in my element at Wilson Equipment booth--they gave a carnation for Mother's Day--I shook hands and got a picture autographed by Terry Bradshaw, George Brett (my special thrill), programs, pictures and hats--while watching the Royals (baseball team). Back at the Show, they whirled the barrel and drew out my son's name for equipment of $24,000. At the game, several congratulated him--finally he ask them what for--I nearly fainted--he didn't care one whit! This has happened several times, but last years it was a $12,000 electric organ, plus merchandise. Michigan's thru Easter, Arizonans - Mother's Day, Ohio's mid August, rest of time I'm home - in and out.

THINGS THIS WRITING GIVES:
Grandparents were Michael "Luther" Walcher and Elizabeth "Betty" Adeline Weeden
A Son, possibly into car racing, auto mechanics in Arizona or California
Has children or family in Michigan, Arizona and Ohio
Lived in Arnett in 1912, age 6 moved there to go to school

California Death Index gave the death date because Leona was buried in California.

Information from Cascade County, Montana Death Index:
Leona Cannon Durta died in Great Falls, Cascade County, Montana on 7 July 1990 at the age of 83. There were no services in Great Falls, she was sent to Monterey California for burial. My father, Allen Cannon, soon realized he could not raise us on what he could grow there, so each summer he would go to harvest fields in Kansas to work all summer. My Grandma and Grandpa Lunsford (father) and uncles, Homer, Lutner Ray and James Lesley lived two miles from us. They used to come with lots of food for us. My Grandfather raised such lovely melons, cantaloupes in the sand and there. He was quite a hunter—rabbits and quail were plentiful. Our closest post office was Peck, Oklahoma. There were no groves of persimmons—right after frost. All Pack saddle, the Indians would come in on their big horses in bright feathered headwear, ride in and stop the trees. No one dared to say a word to the, because my parents would say "it was their land first." We moved to Ardmore when I was 9 years old so my mother could send us to school. While I was at work I went to stay with my sister Alice to make it easier on Mother. I came to Hilsewell in 1930 when I was 14 to live at Lo. Leslie's and go to high school. The Frank Walters moved in one-half block away, then Elfreeda Walter (daughter of James Ira and Myra Dunlap) came to stay with them and care for Edwin Allen and Chester Ray—in 1933. Your Cousin down the line, Leona.

Her letter continues: I just returned from Kansas City from a National Western Auto Show. Great times – fantastic—I've spent my life at sports—and I was in my element at Wilson Equipment booth—they gave a contest for Mother's Day—I stuck hands and got a picture autographed by Terry Brady in, George Brett (my special guy), programs, pictures and hats—while watching the Royals (baseball team). Back at the Show, they winked the barrel and drew out my zone name for equipment of $24,000. At the game, several congratulated him—really he was, then what for—I mean, takes—by older were one what. This has happened several times, but last year it was a $12,000 electric organ, plus merchandise. Michigan's then Easter, Arizonans - Mother's Day, Ohio's mid August, too of time I'm home - in and out.

EXCERPTS from The Maryland Germans by Dieter Cunz
Princeton University Press – 4th Printing at Schusterman-Benson Library, Tulsa

Each family possessed a copy of Johann Arndt's Wahres Christentum "True Christianity" and a copy of the catachism, either the Lutheran or the Heidelberg edition according to whether they were Lutheran or Reformed. As soon as they were past the most difficult beginnings, they erected a school to educate their children in the Christian belief. A little later they build a church and commenced to look about for someone who could preach to them the word of God.

The church records of the Germans in Western Maryland, therefore furnish our principle source of information for the early period. An estimated two-thirds of the Pennsylvania Dutch settlers were Lutheran and one-third were Reformed.

As early as the second year, the first Lutheran minister came to the Monocacy settlement: John Caspar Stoever. At first he worked in Philadelphia, but gradually extended his sphere of activity to minister to scattered Lutherans living in Montgomery and Lancaster counties…He took a trip in 1734 to visit his father in Virginia, who was preaching to the German Lutherans in Virginia and passed through the Monocacy settlement in Virginia. ….. on the 23rd of June 1734, John Caspar Stoever hed the first German-Lutheran services on the banks of the Monocacy. There was no church, sevices were apparently held in a hay loft.

Stoever continued to preach intermittently in the area until November when he conducted election for members as deacons. In April 1743, Rev. David Candler replaced Stoever, coming to Monocacy from Philadelphia from time to time.

In October 1743, the Rev. Gabriel Naesman (Nussman/Nusman) a Lutheran pastor from Sweden initiated the first church book in the parish. The first entry was made on 31 October 1746. From then on the church records give us a running account of what happened in the settlement of the Monocacy. The records are written in German, as are all Lutheran and Reformed Church record in Western Maryland in the 18th century. The record in first church book reads: "On October 31, 1746, I, Gabriel Naesman, pastor at Wicaco in Philadelphia, preached in this new town situated in Manachasi (this must have been German for Monocacy)." Up to this point there had no mention of a town or village of Monocacy. the first town was laid out in 1745 and named Frederick . It was a German, Thomas Schley, who build the first stone house in Frederick. He later became the devoted schoolmaster.

At first German Lutherans went to the old log church, built in 1743, but later weather made attendance difficult. The members of the parish in the southern part of the valley build their own little log church in the city and the log book stayed with the new church where records were continued in it.

In 1747 Rev. Henry Muehlenberg was one of the next ministers to give detailed accounts of the Monocacy area. He baptized and preached and gave the congregation its first constitution and it was written in English! The population at the time of this visit was around 1,000.

Also in 1747, Rev. Michael Schlatter, the famous organizer of the Reformed Church of American went to Frederick. In 1748, the members built a log church on a piece of land given by Daniel Dulaney, the all powerful land owner of Western Maryland and shortly after the building was completed, the first church book was procured. On its first page was written in German: (Translation: "Johann Jacob Bruner bought this record book for 50 Rr. in Frankfurt a/M. on April 16, 1745.) No entries were made, however, until the first resident pastor was installed in 1753. Three years after the founding of Frederick (would be 1750), the region along the Monocacy was divided from Prince George's and organized as a separate county.

When the Germans began to flow into Western Maryland after 1730, they were the best customers the real estate dealers could imagine. If they had no money, they would settle first as renters having agreement with the landlords.

1748 – Dulaney gives land to build Reformed church in Frederick 1752 – First Lutheran resident pastor , Rev. Bernhard Michael Hausihl from Heibronn, GER. he studied theology in Strassburg and was ordained in Holland after marrying sybilla Mayer, the daughter of a prominent citizen of Ulm, GER. He helped raise the second log church in Frederick in 1746.

Then the French and Indian War broke out and Frederick became an important base of operations. Here George Washington met Benjamin Franklin, General Braddock and Governor Sharpe. Fugitives appeared from the west, bringing disquiet and excitement. Not until 1759 could the building be continued, it was dedicated in 1762. The dedication ceremonies are detailed in the church records, by its new minister, John Christopher Hartwick, who had a wanderlust and the next pastor was Rev. John Samuel Schwerdtfeger, who ended activity in 1768.

Jon, I did not copy anymore of the Cunz book, as the Lutheran Observer death information for Michael Walcher (b. 1750) indicated that he emigrated to North Carolina at the age of 14.

IF THIS INFORMATION IS CORRECT, and we nothing else at this time to help us know differently, then the family would have gone to NC about 1764.

From reading this, I feel that the church in Frederick was having problems during this period.

ANOTHER THOUGHT: One of the pastors was Naesman/Nussman and Michael's Observer info states that Adam studied under Nussman. There were Nussman's in the Cabarrus, NC area. A Nussman married into the Layrle/Lyerle family in NC who are related to the Walcher family though Suzanna, daughter of John Frederick. Perhaps the Walchers and Lyerle's went to NC together. Information on Adophus Nussman is at:

When the Germans began to flow into Western Maryland after 1720, they were the best customers the real estate agents could imagine. If they had to choose, they would write their letters having agreement with the landlords.

1748 – Dulaney gives land to Saint Reformed church in Frederick.
1752 – First Lutheran resident pastor – Rev. Benjamin Mayer – Maurice from Hesse-Cassel, GER. He studied theology in Strassburg and was ordained in Holland after marrying Maria Magna, the daughter of a prominent citizen of Cilm, GER. He helped build the second log church in Frederick in 1766.

Then the French and Indian War broke out and Frederick became an important base of operations. Here George Washington met Benjamin Franklin, General Braddock and Governor Sharpe. Immigrants appeared from the west, bringing disputes and excitement. Not until 1789 could the building be continued, it was dedicated in 1792. The dedication ceremonies are detailed in the church records, by its copy minister, John Christopher Harrison, with text in Wunderlust and the new pastor was Rev. John Samuel Schwartzfinger, who ended activity in 1768.

Jim, I do not carry ancestors of the Cline book, so the Lutheran (Hessian dept) information for Michael Walter (b. 1720) indicated that he emigrated to North Carolina at the age of 24.

IF THIS INFORMATION IS CORRECT, and we nothing else at this time to help us know differently, then the family would have come to NC about 1764.

From reading this, I feel that the church in Frederick was having problems during the period.

ANOTHER THOUGHT: One of the pastors was Nassau-Nassau and Mitchell's Genealogy info states that Adam studied under Nassau. There were Mitchells in the Cabarrus, NC area. A Nassau married into the Lazarus family in NC who are related to the Walter family through Susanna, daughter of John Frederick. Perhaps the Walters and Lazarus went to NC together. Information on Adolphus Nassau is at

Some names have kept their original form, while others have become Anglicized, at least in their spelling.
Page 114-15 - The author listed some of the German inscriptions on churches and on gravestones. For example #9 translation: Under this stone rest the remains of ADAM WALKER. He was born in 1722, on the 16th of May. Passed away October (?) 18 (?).
For example #10 translation: Her repose the remains of Margaret WALKER. Born August (?), 1771. Fell asleep May 27, 1800. The should of the righteous are in Gold's hand and no affliction shall touch them." WALKER is the anglicized spelling for the German surname WALCHER. Adam is buried in the St. John's Lutheran Church cemetery, located between Concord and Mount Pleasant, North Carolina.

I believe the book was published in 1983-4. WONDER WHAT THE STONE LOOKS LIKE NOW?

NC Lutheran Church Info - Excerpt from Index to the Colonial and State Records of NC – Schuesterman-Benson Libr, Tulsa, Actual pages ordered through Bartlesville Public Library

Appendix, page 779
The new congregations that were formed in NC under the Synod are the following:

1. Bethel Church, Stanly County, NC is more commonly known as "Bear Creek Church, on account of it contiguity to that stream. It was at this time a united Lutheran and Reformed congregation, and its Lutheran member mostly belonged previously to the St. John's Church, Cabarrus County. About 1804, diving worship was held in Christopher LAYRLE's barn for two or three years….The congregation was for a long time deprived of the services of a regular Lutheran pastor, but was frequently visited by Revs. STORCH and J. W. Meyer.

2. Coldwater Creek Church, Cabarrus County, NC., now St. James Church, Concord, NC. The early records of this congregation have all been destroyed. Coldwater Church was at one time the oldest German religious organization in Western North Carolina; it had a pastor even before the Rev. A NUSSMAN came to American in 1773; this pastor was the Rev. Mr. Suther, a German Reformed minister, some of whose descendants are still living in Concord, NC, and are worthy member of the Lutheran Church there.

In the minutes of NC Synod mention is made of this church in the year 1814, when it was received in connection with the Synod, giving the name of Philip CRESS and Michael WINECOFF as its church officers…

St. Michael's Church, Iredell County, NC – The German citizens of Iredell County came originally from Rowan and Cabarrus Counties. Many of them are inter-married with the original Scotch-Irish colonists….The church land was donated by Mr. DANIEL WALCHER, and was given as joint property for the use of both the Lutheran and Episcopal denominations and was so continued as a union house of worship for several years….It was in this congregation that the Rev. Simeon W. Harkey, D.D., and his brothers, who are also in the ministry, were born and reared up for enlarged usefulness in the Lutheran Church. St. Michael's has lost heavily by the removal of many of its members, principally to the State of Illinois.

The two congregations in Cabarrus County were supplied by the Rev. C. A. STORCH; St. John's Church was served as a part of his regular charge, whilst the Coldwater congregation received occasional visits from him. In Rowan County, Rev. Storch also served the Organ Church, in the bounds of where he resided; it is probable that he also served Savage's or Sewits' Church, now called Lutheran Chapel, but the Union or Pine Church he had resigned and the Rev. J.W. Meyer became its pastor.

In 1817, Catechet Daniel Walcher was sent by the Synod to labor in these vacant churches (St. John's in Salisbury and churches in Davidson county, NC), where he remained until 1821, when he removed to Pendleton County, Virginia.

In the year 1810, the Rev. Jacob SHERER became the pastor of the churches in Guilford and Orange counties...through Rev. Scherer's ministry, this charge became the most promising in the State.

The new congregations that were formed in NC under the Synod are the following:

1. Synod Church, Stanly County, NC: It was previously known as "Clear Creek Church" or "Cross Roads" in conformity to that stream. It was at this time a united Lutheran and Reformed congregation, and its Lutheran member mostly belonged previously to the St. John's Church, Cabarrus County. About 1821, during worship was held in a tetraplex LAYTON's barn in two or three years. The congregation was for a long time deprived of the services of a regular Lutheran pastor, but was frequently visited by Revs. STORKEL and L.W. Meyer.

2. Old Water Creek Church, Cabarrus County, NC, was St. James Church, Concord, NC. The early records of this congregation have all been destroyed. Coldwater Church was at one time the oldest German religious organization in Western North Carolina. It had a pastor even before the Rev. J. ARNSWAN came to America in 1773. This pastor was the Rev. Mr. Stirlac, a German Reformed minister, some of whose descendants are still living in Concord, NC, and are worthy members of the Lutheran Church there.

In the minutes of NC Synod mention is made of this church in the year 1814, when it was revived in connection with the Synod, giving the name of Philip CRAMS and Michael WINECOFF as its church officers.

St. Michael's Church, Iredell County, NC: The congregation existing in Iredell County came originally from Rowan and Cabarrus Counties. Many of them are inter-married with the original Scotch-Irish colonists. The church land was donated by Mr. DANIEL WALKER, and was given as total property for the use of both the Lutheran and Episcopal denominations and was so constituted as a union house of worship for several years. It was in this congregation that the Rev. Simeon W. Harvey, D.D., and his brothers, who are also in the ministry, were born and reared up for eminent usefulness in the Lutheran Church. St. Michael's has lost heavily by the removal of many of its members, principally to the State of Illinois.

The two congregations in Cabarrus County were supplied by the Rev. C. A. STORKEL. St. John's Church was served as a part of his regular charge. While the Coldwater congregation received occasional visits from him. In Rowan County, Rev. Storkel also served the Organ Church, in the beginning of whose ministry, it is probable that he also served Savage's or Sevier's Church, now called Lutheran Chapel, but the Union or Pine Church he had resigned and the Rev. J.W. Meyer became its pastor.

In 1817, Christian Henkel Wittmer was sent by the Synod to labor in the vacant churches of St. John's in Salisbury and churches in Davidson county, NC, where he remained until 1821, when he removed to Pendleton County, Virginia.

In the year 1819, the Rev. Jacob SHERER became the pastor of the churches in Guilford and Orange counties. Through Rev. Scherer's ministry, this charge became the most promising in the State.

Dear Barbara -

Sorry to be late in responding. I am just now back in the mood and back to the genealogy. I have more questions than answers about the Walchers. I am sure I am descended from the Adam Walcher that died in 1801 in Concord. There is a marker for him in the St. John's cemetery in Irving, Illinois, which is located on the old Daniel L. Walcher farm land. Adam died in Concord and is buried in St. John's Lutheran cemetery in Concord. The marker in Irving is just a memorial. I have direct link to Daniel Theophilus Walcher and thus to Daniel L., Michael and Adam (1801).

The other Adam died in 1791, also in Concord and is also buried in St. John's Lutheran cemetery. He had a son Michael and a son Frederick. 'My' Frederick is actually John Frederick (J. F. on tombstone). All of these people were named Walker (the German pronunciation of Walcher is Walker). I believe all the people currently named Walker who are descended from Adam Walcher are descended from Adam 1791.

This info is from memory and I don't want to pass on any more 'facts' until I am sure I have my facts straight. There is enough misinfo around. I do not want to add to it. I have piles and piles of info I have to sort out and I am just starting into it. Right now I am trying to finish up scanning all the pictures I have been sent by relatives for the project. I have had them for a long time and need to return them. I am scanning pictures as fast as I can as I have now settled on the software and methods to use. I am scanning everything into ThumbsPlus V. 4.5 at 720dpi as close to 4x6 as I can get it. The big stumbling block is there are very few pictures where the subject is identified, so it goes very slow. I want to try sending pictures to you to see if you can help.

This picture was scanned at 3240x4320x8bit and is 8.8Mbytes. I have reduced it to 600x800x8bit and 96.7Kbytes for transmission. Now that I know how, I can set it to just about any resolution, so let me know if I need to change it.

I believe this picture was taken 1909-1911 in Litchfield. I have several pictures that seem to be taken on and around this porch. Factors to consider: Clyde and Mabel were married Feb 28, 1911; Daniel Theophilus died Sep 23, 1910. I believe this is a family gathering for Daniel T's funeral. I know Clyde (age 19) is at the right of the front row. My best guess on the others: Front Row: Harry Bert (26), Glen (21), Roy (24), Clyde (19). Rear: Ben (35), Charles (45) or George (46).

I have three pictures taken at this same occasion. One of (I believe) the Walcher, Kinder and Ernst girls and one of the girls and boys together on the same porch. If this works, I will send the others.

Regards, Jon and Alice

Jim, sorry to take so long to reply, have been out of town attending to my 85 year old Mother. I do not know if I have corresponded with you before or why you asked me about Elizabeth's birthdate, would you please clarify where you received your information. Here is what I can tell you...

Both Adam and his son Michael had a daughter named Elizabeth. The Elizabeth's are listed in both of their wills.

Adam's Will Exract
ADAM'S WILL: (Abstract) from Jon Fredericks7/2001
Cabarrus Will Book A, page 68-69 - July 5, 1800
Wife: Christine
Son: Henry (Plantation I live on)
Son: Frederick (L10)
All my children: Michael, Henry, Frederick, Elizabeth, Catharina, Barbara, dec'd but her children.
Executors: Son, Henry and wife, Christina

Adam's will lists Elizabeth as the fourth child. We have a birth date for Frederick as 5 March 1758 and an approximate birth date of 1764 for Catherine who married Nicholas Reitenar/Ridenhour. This is just an an assumption on my part of Adam's Elizabeth's birthdate being between 1760-1763.

Michael's daughter Elizabeth married David Winecoff, Sr. in 1800, this marriage is listed in the Illinois Marriage Index, 1763-1900. Her birthdate of 1778 (no day or month) must have come from that record or from the Winecoff information. I have not had an opportunity to look this up as yet. Michael's Elizabeth is listed in his will as the 4th child, between Catherine and Christina. In Michael's obituary from the Lutheran Observer, it states his birth date as 15 October 1750 and that he married Mary Magdalene Cline at the age of 22 years, making the year 1772. Both daughters Elizabeth and Christine have been given birth years of 1778, which is a bit odd for that period of time. Christine's birthdate is recorded as 17 June 1778, so there could be a problem, since that is only the 6th month of the year, but stranger things have happened. Micheal's will is a long one, I am attaching a typed copy to this note.

One unusal item I now notice is: the will lists each child in was thought to be the order of their birth, but looking at my data and the birthdates given by other researchers and records, the birth order is not the same as in the will. I will need to go back through my information and detail where each date came from. But, right now I have a bit too much on my plate--will be awhile before I can go back through my info and see if I can zero in on this a bit more, just wanted you to know what I had. I have a feeling that the birthdate for Michael's Elizabeth is incorrect, but will have to find where the 1778 for her came from. Mainly wanted you to know that both Adam and Michael had daughter's named Elizabeth.

I am assuming that you descend from Michael's Catherine who married John Ritchey. Please free to contact me if you have other questions and I will be happy to correspond with you and will keep you note on file to let you know my later findings.

Ernest Walcher of Gypsum dies

DAILY STAFF REPORT

OBITUARY

Ernest S. "Doc" Walcher, a former state highway employee and World War II veteran who held various official positions in Gypsum, died Thursday in Denver. He was 83.

Walcher was born in Darby, Pa. on March 15, 1921 and moved with his family to Oklahoma in the 1930s. The Dust Bowl forced the family west to Colorado and Gypsum, where Walcher was the valedictorian of his graduating class at Eagle County High School.

Walcher worked for the Civil Conservation Corps in Glenwood Springs, building bridges for the U.S. Forest Service. Walcher and a brother enlisted in the military on Dec. 7, 1941. Walcher served for four years in the South Pacific with the Night Fighter Squadron, primarily bombing Japan positions at night.

After the war, Walcher returned to Gypsum and married Joyce Anderson on May 13, 1946.

Walcher worked for the Colorado State Highway Maintenance Department for 30 years. He was responsible for U.S. Highway 24 over Tennessee Pass and U.S. Highway 6 over Vail Pass.

Walcher drove road-graders and snowplows for Eagle County for four years. He later worked for the town of Gypsum on the Turgeonville property, where he mowed and trimmed the lawn.

Walcher, who received the Congressional Record for outstanding public service by U.S. Rep. Scott McInnis, was mayor of Gypsum from 1960 to 1968. He also was chief of the town's volunteer fire department and commander of the American Legion Post 150.

Friends and family members said Walcher regularly participated in Memorial Day services and was a member of firing squads when fellow soldiers died.

After Walcher's wife died in 2003, he moved to Denver because of health issues. He lived in an assisted living facility for Alzheimer's patients with four other people. There, he continued to work in the yard and garden.

He is survived by his children, Dan Walcher of Vail, Janet Cunningham of Centennial and Dennis Walcher of Littleton; his grandchildren, Michael Cunningham, Sara Weidner, Erika Walcher and Stefan Walcher; brother William of Grand Junction; and a sister, Thelma Schultz of Arvada.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Robert Walcher.

He was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buckaneers in the 9th round in 1985, released and then signed by them again the next year and released. He played with the New Orleans Saints during strike. He also played with the Chicago Bears, Washington Redskins, and then back to the New Orleans Saints where he has been for 1½ years. In 1990, while with New Orleans, he broke the record by receiving three game balls in one season for good performance.

BARHAM PARKER AND MARY SHAVER BASINGER

James E. and Anna Parker Basinger were parents of my great-grandfather Barham Parker Basinger. He was the seventh of nine children and was born 8 June 1840, near the Yadkin River in southeastern Rowan County. He attended the area schools. On 24 May, 1861, married Mary Shaver of Rowan County; Mary was a daughter of Caleb and Leah Nussman Shaver. Along with five of his brothers, "Park" enlisted in the army of the Confederate States of America and participated in some of the major battles. He was severely wounded in the hip and eventually pardoned. One brother died in the Battle of Williamsburg. The others returned home to Rowan County.

Park and Mary were members of Luther's Lutheran Church and reared their family in that church. They were farmers. In addition to church activities, he was active in veterans organization. He played a fiddle and entertained at many festivities.

Their children were William, Sarah Jane Earnhardt, Julia Ann Culp, John Luther, Walter, Monroe, Howell M. and James Frank. Two other daughters died in childhood. William, Howell and Frank relocated near Shreveport, Louisiana, in the late 1800s. The remaining children lived nearby. In his later years Park lived with son J. Luther Basinger. They are buried at Luther's Church Cemetery.

Jane and her future husband Moselle Earnhardt were members of the same church. After Moselle's adventure west, they were married by Rev. Samuel Rothrock, 14 October, 1888, at the home of Moselle's parents. When I was a child Aunt Mae Brady gave me a vivid description of how Grandpa had stolen Grandma away on his horse for the ceremony on a Sunday afternoon.

Jane and Moselle lived near both their families and were parents of six children, three of whom died in childhood. They became members of Gold Hill Holiness Church and she was among the first mother, Bessie Avalene Cagle, 30 June 1913. They were parents of Maggie Pauline Buie Loflin, William Robert, Vergie Lucille Burleson Benner, Mabel Elizabeth Drye, Vivian Lougenia Caldwell, Adam Eugene, Jr. They were farmers and textile workers. He also was a salesman. They are buried at Fairview Cemetery in Albemarle. There are many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

FROM BAST TO BOST

George Bast, age forty-six years and his wife Maria, age forty-four years, are on a ships list along with their son Johannes at age twelve years, in 1732.

Johannes Bast (Bost) and wife Susanna Catharina were the parents of fourteen children and are listed in the History of Old Williams Township Congregation Lutheran Church in Bucks County, PA. The family moved to North Carolina in 1754, settling in our sister county of Cabarrus.

The Bost family has always devoted its time to church, state and our nation. The five sons of Johannes and Susanna Catharina Bast who served in the American Revolution were William, John, Elias, Jacob and George.

John Bost was born in Bucks County, PA on 23 August 1743 and was baptized October 1743, and died in 1793 at the young age of fifty. His wife was Catreena Shuford, daughter of John Shuford of Catawba County who also died about 1797-98; their graves have not been discovered. John Bost is listed on the records of historic Organ Lutheran Church in Rowan County.

John Bost and his wife Catrenna Shuford had seven children: Conrad, John Jr., George, Catharina, Jacob, Elizabeth and David. They were apprenticed by Cabarrus County Court or lived with Bost and Shuford kin in Catawba County or as orphans were placed by the Cabarrus Court in 1798.

Their son George was born 4 September 1779 and was most likely reared by his uncles, Jacob and George Bost. He married Catherine Ridenhour 17 April 1805 and they had twelve children. Catherine died 6 September 1853, two days after George's seventy-fourth birthday and George himself died the following month, 20 October 1853. Catherine Ridenhour was the daughter of Nicholas Ridenhour and Catherine Walcher.

George and Catherine Ridenhour Bost's son, George Eli, was born 21 August 1823 and at the age of twenty-five married on 6 April 1848 to Margarette Caroline Kluttz, born 16 February 1829; she was nineteen years old. She died on 10 February 1901, six day before her seventy-second birthday. Margarette Caroline Kluttz is buried at died 12 September 1884, married 19 August 1828 Sarah Lentz, born 11 July 1807 and died 28 August 1871; nine days after their forty-third wedding anniversary. I remember searching and returning to search again and again for Grandma Sarah's grave marker at Organ Lutheran Church. On a drizzling grey day the family had gone to search once more, each in a different direction. As I walked and looked I thought aloud, "Sarah, where are you, Sarah, where are you?" Suddenly, I turned quickly as a voice responded, "Here I am," the elusive Sarah!

George Eli and Margarette Caroline had eight children; son Henry Jackson Bost was born 9 May 1862, died 15 August 1933 at seventy-one years. He was married on 20 November 1884 to his first cousin Margerite Deliegh Bost, born 1 November 1858, died on Valentines Day 14 February 1935; they had eight children. Margaret Deliegh was the daughter of Rueben Wiley Bost, born 27 November 1828, died 20 September 1896 and was married 12 September 1854 to Catherine Emmeline Beaver, born 17 May 1834, died 25 June 1876.

Henry Jackson Bost and Margerite Deliegh Bost's son Roy Roscoe Bost, born 18 May 1893, died 25 February 1966, just two months before his fiftieth wedding anniversary on 21 April 1916 with Lola Gertie Kluttz Bost, born 20 May 1897. This, 1991, is her ninety-fourth year. To this union there were six children: Zelia Melba Bost Lee, born 27 August 1927, died 12 October 1973 at forty-six years; Conrad Wilson Bost, born 27 January 1925, died 6 December 1989.

Lola Gertie Kluttz Bost now resides at Room 404, Brawley Commons, Meridian Nursing Center, 710 Julian Road, Salisbury, NC 28144.

CHAPTER VIII

THE NORTH CAROLINA RIDENHOURS

NICHOLAS RIDENHOUR AND DESCENDANTS

This chapter chronicles the line of the Nicolaus Reitenauer, who was born in 1735 in Durstel, Alsace, France; immigrated to America in 1764; resided in Pennsylvania for a time; and then migrated to North Carolina about 1777, where the name was Anglicized to Nicholas Ridenhour. Recent research by these authors has determined that he was not the son of Johannes Reitenauer of Berks Co., Pa. and grandson of Nicolaus "Claus" Reitenauer of Tieffenbach, Alsace, as was originally thought.

Nicholas Ridenhour was the great grandson of Hans Jacob Reitenauer, who was the brother of Nicholas "Claus" Reitenauer. The Ridenhours of North Carolina are the only American Reitenauer descendants determined (so far) to be from the line of his (Claus') brother, Hans Jacob Reitenauer.

The line of Nicholas Ridenhour of North Carolina:

I. Antony Reitenauer
II. Hans Reitenauer
III. Hans Jacob Reitenauer, (b. 1634, the brother of Nicholas "Claus")
IV. Hans Jacob Reitenauer, (b. 1673)
V. Andreas Reitenauer (b. 1702) (refer back to Chapter II, Part 1)
VI. Nicolaus Reitenauer (b. 1735)
(a.k.a. Nicholas Ridenhour of N.C.)

JOHANN NICOLAUS REITENAUER (a.k.a. NICHOLAS RIDENHOUR)

NORTH CAROLINA, ROWAN CO. OR MECKLENBURG CO.
The Revolutionary War Pension Application of a John Andrew Ridingour, (taken in Morgan Co., Indiana on 12 May 1834), leads credibility to the migration from Berks Co., Pennsylvania to North Carolina of the family of Nicholas Reitenauer (Nicholas Ridenhour). The following statements of John Andrew Ridingour were recorded for his pension application::
"His name is John Andrew Ridingour, but he goes by the name Andrew Ridingour. He does not have a record of his age, but thinks he is about 73 years old". (born 1761). Johann Andreas, son of Nicolaus Reutenauer and Eva Margaretha [Eberhardt] would have been 71, born in 1763.
"He came to Rowan Co., North Carolina from Berks Co., Pennsylvania with his parents when he was about 14 years old". This would have been about 1775; and these authors found no record of any Reitenauer except Nicholas, who came to North Carolina from Berks Co., Pennsylvania about this time. It is possible that Andrew's father, Nicholas, settled first in Rowan Co., North Carolina. He was not identified as being from "from Mecklenburg Co." until 1779. This area was very close to the boundary between Rowan and Mecklenburg Counties.
John Andrew Ridingour was drafted into service in the spring of 1780 while living in North Carolina, and served in the South Carolina Line. "He stated that he does not have his discharge papers. He left them with his father in North Carolina when he was discharged in 1782". After the war he lived in Rowan and Burke Cos., North Carolina when he was discharged in 1782. (6)
These authors believe that this John Andrew Ridingour was Johann Andreas Reutenauer, b. 8 January 1763 in Durstel, Alsace, son of Johann Nicolaus Reutenauer and Eva Margaretha Eberhard. This pension application was taken in 1834 and the small inconsistencies in age, etc. could be attributed to age and time.

1777 - 26 April - John Daniel, son of Nicholas Reitenauer, was born. (12) Earlier researcher have stated John Daniel was born in Pennsylvania. However the 1850 census for Ridenhour Twp., Stanley Co., North Carolina gives the following records for John Daniel Ridenour and his wife, Elizabeth (File):
Daniel Ridenour - 73 years old, born in North Carolina
Elizabeth Ridenour - 70 year old, born in North Carolina (7)
In the 1880 census for Ridenhour Twp., Stanley Co., North Carolina, two of Daniel's sons, Phillip and Moses, also stated that their father was born in North Carolina. (8)

MECKLENBURG CO., NORTH CAROLINA
1779 - 24 Feb. - A deed was recorded which identified Nicholas Redinghouse (sic) as living on Dutch Buffalo Creek in Mecklenburg Co. (9)

1779 - 11 Sept - Maria Magdalena "Molli" was born (13). Proof that she was the daughter of the Nicholas Reitenauer who settled in North Carolina comes from a 1798 communicants list at St. John's Evangelical. Lutheran. Church at Concord in in North Carolina suggests that Nicholas Reitzenauer moved his family from Berks Co. Pennsylvania to North Carolina by 1777.

NORTH CAROLINA, ROWAN CO. OR MECKLENBURG CO.
The Revolutionary War Pension Application of a John Andrew Ridingour (listed in Morgan Co., Indiana on 12 May 1834), lends credibility to the migration from Berks Co., Pennsylvania to North Carolina of the family of Nicholas Reitzenauer (Nicholas Ridenhour). The following statements of John Andrew Ridingour were recorded for his pension application:
"His name is John Andrew Ridingour, but he goes by the name Andrew Ridingour. He does not have a record of his age, but thinks he is about 73 years old". (born 1761).

He left them with his father in North Carolina when he was discharged in 1782". After the war he lived in Rowan and Iredell Co's., North Carolina when he was discharged in 1783. (6)
These authors believe that this John Andrew Ridingour was Johann Andreas Reitzenauer, b. 8 January 1765 in Dunsel, Alsace, son of Johann Nicolaus Reitzenauer and Eva Margaretha Eberhard. This pension application was taken in 1834 and the small inconsistencies in age, etc. could be attributed to age and time.

1777 - 26 April - John Daniel, son of Nicholas Reitzenauer, was born. (12) Earlier researcher have stated John Daniel was born in Pennsylvania. However the 1850 census for Ridenhour Twp., Stanley Co., North Carolina gives the following records for John Daniel Ridenour and his wife, Elizabeth (File):
Daniel Ridenour - 73 years old, born in North Carolina
Elizabeth Ridenour - 70 year old, born in North Carolina (7)
In the 1880 census for Ridenhour Twp., Stanley Co., North Carolina, two of Daniel's sons, Phillip and Moses, also stated that their father was born in North Carolina. (8)

Mecklenburg Co. in which she was identified as the daughter of Nicholas Reitenauer who was listed with her. (14) (see 1798, next page).

1780 - 19 Oct. A Markret Reitenauern" died and was buried in St. John's Lutheran Church Cemetery near Mt. Pleasant, in Mecklenburg Co. Her stone; a small, gray, slate one about 11" by 14" and about a half an inch thick, was weathered and broken away from its base. It lay on a stone fence. The inscription (in German) read "Markret Reitenauern in the year 1780 the 12th (sic) of October. Her age was 45 years and 4 months." (10) (This Markret would have been born in 1735)

The birth date of Eva Margaretha (Eberhard) Reitenauer was February 1735. In October of 1780 she would have been 45 years and 8 months old. The stone could have been misread or her age in months could have been misjudged. These authors believe that this "Margret Reitenauern" was Eva Margaretha (Eberhard) Reitenauer, the 1st wife of Nicholas Reitenauer who migrated to North Carolina about 1777.

There were 4 females in the household of Nicholas Ridenhour who can not be identified as children born to Nicholas Ridenhour and wife, Catharina (Walcher), in North Carolina. It is believed that the children of the earlier marriage of Nicholas to Eva Margaretha Eberhard account for these extra females.

Ella Geneva Walcher Pratt's Father

Dr. Joseph Gideon Walcher
born March 7, 1824, Cabarrus Co., North Carolina died March 26, 1881, Ohlman, IL buried at St. John's Lutheran Cemetery, between Witt-Harvel, IL

Dr. Walcher married his second wife, Jemima Toberman, on August 13, 1863, in her parent's home at Filmore, IL. They were the parents of 8 children. Only 4 girls lived to be adults. Dr. Walcher made his medicine by mixing a paste with dried herbs. Ella Geneva used her hands to help her father roll the mixture into balls. After drying, the pills were put into bottles. Dr. Walcher owned a 180 farm. He also had livestock. Ella Geneva was almost nine years old when her father died.

Mrs. Ella Pratt
Obituary

"Another soul has finished the pilgrim path below
No more to see but dimly, but face to face to know."

The habiliments of this Christian pilgrimage were exchanged for the symbols of eternal triumph when Mrs. Ella Pratt, wife of Walter Pratt, passed from this world into a large life that await. Ella Geneva Walcher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Walcher, was born near Audubon—Montgomery Co., Ill. June 25, 1872. When two years of age, she with her parents moved to Lowry City, Mo., where about 6 years she with her parents returned again to Illinois in 1878—settled at Lakewood, Shelby Co., Illinois-lived there two years. In 1880 moved to Ohlman, Montgomery Co. when March 26, spring of 1881, her father passed to the better world, where she with her loving mother and three sisters lived for 16 years. Early in pilgrimage, she decided to live for Christ, united with ---- F. M. church in Ohlman and entered the evangelist work for about 10 years and served as pastor of F. M. church in Decatur, Illinois for one year, then one year in Ivesdale.

Through out all the experiences of joy and sorrow incident to this life she found in Him an unfailing comforter and friend. On Nov. 8, 1899, she was wedded to Walter Pratt with whom she lived happily. They settled on a little farm N. East of Hettick. Here 6 children came to gladden the home [where] she worked bravely so long as she was able to keep a bright spot for relatives and loved ones. We believe she would say to her friends and dear ones in the language of Frederick Lourinse Knowles:

"This body was my home—it is not I
Here in I sojourn till in some far sky
I lease a fairer dwelling built to last
Till all the carpentry of time is past—
When from my high place viewing this lone star
what though the crumbling walls turn dust to loam
I shall have left them, for a larger home
This body was my home; it is not I
Triumph in this faith I live and die."

Walcher Family holds reunion

A driving tour of the original Walcher homestead, Pleasant Hill Cemetery and the Rose Hill Cemetery at South Haven brought back many memories from the past for the Walchers who attended a family reunion on May 5.

Those enjoying the tour were Barbara Fulton of Bartlesville, Okla.; Wendell and Addie Walcher of Palisade, Colo.; James McLean and Alice Stratton of Tulsa, Okla.; Sandra Joy of San Marcus, Calif.; Lawrence and Carol Norris of Wellington; and Gilbert and Idotha Cottle of South Haven.

The group then joined more Walcher families at a South Haven restaurant for an enjoyable evening.

Those present for this occasion were Eddie Crittenden of Arkansas City; Jack and Barbara Fulton of Bartlesville, Okla.; Harold and Delma Walcher, Gladys Miller and Darelene and Pete McCartney, all of Wellington; Karol and Donna Harryman of Anaheim, Calif.; Ken Walcher of Derby; Ken and Carolyn Johnson of Ft. On May 6 the group again met at the Community Building in South Haven. Carolyn Johnson, Anita Phillippi and Marion Cully honored their mother, Helen Fern Cully, with the "Living Treasure" Award for this year. Kelli Brown, Helen Fern's granddaughter, sang "I Believe."

Doug and Patricia Walcher played "Malaguena" on the Clavona, which was enjoyed by all.

Betty Arnspiger then played "On Eagles Wings" and Richard Arnspiger read a eulogy written by the family in memory of their grandson, Mark David Hankaner, who was killed in a car accident.

Lawrence and Carol Norris received the prize for being newlyweds. Wendell and Addie Walcher received the greatest distance award and the newest baby award went to Levi Wheeler, grandson of Anita Phillippi.

Carolyn Johnson presented the idea of also having a remembrance for loved ones that have deceased calling it "With Fondest Memories" and would alternate every other year with "The Living Treasure."

A motion for developing The Walcher Family Memorial Scholarship Fund was also discussed. A wall plaque will be made for those contributing to the fund. Carolyn Johnson will contact someone to make the plaque and committee for the fund is Doug Walcher, Gilbert Cottle and Betty Arnspiger.

Linus is not being fair about rel

Dear Ann Landers: I am 56 and have been married for one year to "Linus," who is 57. We finally consummated our marriage six months after the wedding. That was a single "performance." We have not had sex since that time. Linus was honest with me from the beginning and admitted he had a low sex drive. Frankly, I didn't think it would matter. I convinced myself that I would be happy without sex, as long as I had a loving, caring partner. Well, Ann, I was wrong. I miss the intimacy we should be having as a married couple.

Linus and I are truly in love. He was willing to go to a doctor for a complete physical. The doctor found nothing wrong. He gave Linus a prescription for Viagra, but Linus refuses to get the prescription filled. He says he is not impotent, just "not interested."

Linus knows how sad I am about this turn of events and is afraid I might leave him because of it. I asked myself that tried-and-true Ann Landers question, "Am I better off with him or without him?" and decided I am going to stay. Now, please help me figure out how to accept the situation, because it's obvious to me that it's not going to change. Tell me how to be content without sex. — Wanting More in New Jersey

Dear Wanting More: You say that you and Linus are "truly in love," but his lack of consideration for your basic needs does not sound like love to me. There have been some advances made in the study of sexual libido. I hope Linus will consider consulting a sex therapist. Meanwhile, if you've resigned yourself to a sexless marriage, you'd you printed a letter from "Unsure in Nevada," who said her ex-husband wanted their 12-year-old daughter to be a bridesmaid at his upcoming wedding. She was against it, and so were you.

Six years ago, my husband and I were married. Our wedding party consisted of my 12-year-old daughter, and his 8-year-old son and 12-year-old daughter from a previous marriage. Before the wedding, we talked to the kids about being in the ceremony. We spoke to my ex-husband and his ex-wife, who allowed the children to decide for themselves. Once the kids knew that they would not be hurting their parents, they felt free to participate.

Including them helped us become a closer family. "Unsure in Nevada" should discuss this with her daughter and let her make the decision. The new stepmother is going to be an

History

My Grandfather was Bazzle Duff. No middle name and was called "Baz" He was born in Montgomery County. Ill. He married Sarah Jane (Temple), Paddock on Feb 21. 1877. Jenny Sarah's daughter would of been 5 years and 7 months old when they married. When Jenny's father died Abraham Temple, Jenny's Grandfather was made her guardian & when he died Robert Elipson was her guardian (I found this in the Court house at Hillsboro Ill.) Robert Elipson I believe was married to Louisa Temple, Sarah's sister and an Aunt to Jenny. (I haven't proved Robert being Louisa's husband yet but proved she was married to Elipson)

On aug 3. 1880 Bazzle & Sarah bought 72 acres of land. It was South of Raymond Ill. Zanesville township. Montgomery Co. There was a 2 room log cabin on the land. With a dirt floor. Abram, Ellis (my father) and Bertha were all born in this log cabin. In 1888 Bazzle had a new home & barn built on his land. This house is where I was born & raised. My father lived on this place 58 years of his life. after his sister Bertha died it was sold. He lived on another farm for a little over 2 years when he & my mother were first married & then my grandmother Duff moved to Litchfield & my father & mother moved back on the Duff Place.

Bazzle died May 30. 1908. He had diabetes and he hurt his big toe. It would not heal and so the Dr. took off his toe. It did not heal & he had to have his foot amputated, then his leg. Still no healing and gangrene set in & he died. All of his amputations were done at home on the kitchen table used for a operating table.

A. M. B. WALCHER, 77, who bought the first self-binder to harvest wheat ever sold in Kansas, died the other day. His death recalls the historical fact that laboring men of Ohio and West Virginia once organized and collecting all the binders in the rich upper Ohio valley, burned them when they first were introduced. They argued that the binder was throwing them out of needed employment.

Former Resident Stricken, Dies, While Driving

Ralph E. Walcher, 531 South Belmont, Wichita, a former resident of Blackwell, died of a heart attack while driving his automobile in Mississippi late Monday night or early Tuesday morning, and his wife, Pauline, was injured in the accident after he was stricken.

The accident took place near Tupelo, Miss., where Mrs. Walcher is hospitalized with undetermined injuries.

Survivors include Edwin A. Walcher, a nephew, of 107 West Coolidge, who told The Journal-Tribune that his aunt and uncle were en route from Florida to Wichita, where he is employed by the Globe Oil and Refining company, the same firm with which he was employed here.

It was erroneously reported Tuesday morning that Earnest Walcher, father of Edwin, and brother of Ralph, was the victim.

C. D. L. WALCHER TAKEN IN DEATH

Charles D. L. Walcher, 80, long time resident of this city, died suddenly at his home 912 North B street, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Survivors include his two sons, Ernest R. Walcher, Chicago, Ill., Ralph E. Walcher, Wichita; one daughter, Mrs. Lottie Rusk, Wellington. His wife preceded him in death on July 17, 1947.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later from the Frank Funeral Home.

Walcher Funeral To Be Wednesday

Funeral services for Charles D. L. Walcher will be held Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Frank Funeral home with Rev. O. R. Henderson officiating.

Generation No. 1

1. Alvin Neal[2] Rusk (Rupert Martin[1]) was born 13 August 1929 in Wellington, Sumner, Kansas. He married Marilyn "Joan" Elliott 31 July 1955 in Russell, Russell, Kansas. She was born 25 March 1936 in Dodge City, Ford, Kansas. .

Notes for Alvin Neal Rusk:
Alvin did not start school until he was seven because he wanted to stay home with his new baby sister, Carol. He attended all eight elementary years at Jordan School just one half mile north and west of home.

September 1948--September 1951
Mrs. Oyer, Mr. Milliken, Miss Shockey and Bertha Clark had done their best on this shy, country boy, but try as they would I was still an average student. There seems little incentive to continue with a higher education--after all no other Rusk to my knowledge, had gone beyond Grade 12. Mother insisted that an education was something to last a lifetime and could never be taken away. She had been an elementary school teacher for a short period of time. Two of my friends, John Williams and Bob Cartmill, suggested I room with them at Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia and give it a try for a semester at least. With no real major in mind, I elected to try a pre-engineering curriculum since science and mathematics were fun and interesting. After all, the physics involved is mostly common sense with some mathematics thrown in! As a janitor, I cleaned lots of blackboards and swept floors between hours of homework. Thanks to a kind, caring advisor and mentor, I gained confidence and found I could "cut the mustard." As a sophomore and junior, I became a student physics laboratory assistant. Along with a half-dozen other farm boys, we learned more physics as laboratory assistants than in any class. I found it fun and rewarding helping fellow students.

September 1951--September 1954
Uncle Sam and my draft board insisted North Korea was more important in my life than finishing my senior year. Sixteen weeks of infantry basic training at Fort Riley, Kansas prepared me for another 22 weeks of Officer's Candidate School at the Engineering School at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. West Point style life and bridge building prepared me to be a Second Lieutenant Executive Officer in a clerk-typist school at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. (No one ever questions orders in the Army!) After weeks of watching former classmates receive Far East Germany orders, I received orders to go to Baveria, West Germany, just in case the Russians got restless. Between building and tearing down bridges on the Danube, I got to meet the people of the area and through not knowing the language, I strangely seemed to fit in!

September 1954--September 1957
Earning 36 months of GI Bill during my "forced" hiatus from college education, I finished my bachelor's degree with a major in physics and mathematics. Since I had 27 months left of the original 36 months and since I ~~could~~ hate to see anything to go to waste, I decided to go on for a master's degree in physics and was accepted at the University of Iowa, Iowa City. Again I did not go alone--this time I took a wife, a graduate of Russell High School, Joan Elliott, who after completing one year at Emporia State, decided to put her higher education on hold. While at Iowa University, I was again a laboratory assistant and was encouraged by Dr. James Van Allen and his colleagues to first try my hand at teaching, and, if that did not work, then go into industry.

September 1957--September 1959
So after receiving my master's degree and acquiring a beautiful little daughter, Kathryn, I accepted a teaching position at a small Presbyterian school, Tarkio College in Tarkio, Missouri. Teaching physics and a variety of mathematics courses turned out to be a joy, seeing young college students grow and mature. A photography hobby turned into an assistant to the students when I began taking pictures for their yearbook.

September 1959--September 1966
My family was growing, adding another beautiful daughter, Cynthia, while living in Missouri. I was easily lured back to Emporia State by my mentor, Dr. Winston Cram. There a brand new science building added to the joy of watching the "lights go on" in students eyes! After adding two more delightful children, James and Jennifer, it

1. Alvin Neal Kuck (Paper Sharing) was born 11 August 1929 in Washington, Sumner, Kansas. He married Mary Ann "Sally" Willett 31 July 1955 in Russell, Russell, Kansas. She was born 22 March 1930 in Dodge City, Ford, Kansas.

Notes for Alvin Neal Kuck:
Alvin did not talk about until he was seven years old he wanted to stay in one place. Sally died, Cora. He attended all eight elementary years at Jordan School, one half mile south and east of home.

Memories for 1936 – September 1939:
Mrs. Dyer, Mr. Milliken, Miss Stockley and Brooks Clark were there the entire time, country boy, but by as much as I was still an only child. There seemed little incentive to continue with a degree. Accounting—also to my other flunk to my Industrial had gone beyond Grade 12. Mother received it at an auction was accepting to be a failure and could never be let go away. She had been an elementary school teacher, a great people time. I met of my friends, John Williams and Jack Carroll, occupied I room with them in Kansas City, Texas at Fredericksburg and give it a try for a semester at least. Well, it was time to wind, I elected to try a position operating computing office across and mathematics were fun and exercise my. Also all, the physics to relate a mostly concerns arise with some problems thrown in. As a junior, I elected late of Industrial and away from between hours of homework. Thanks to a kind, caring advisor and mentor, I passed confidence and found I could "cut the mustard." As a sophomore and junior, I became a student physics laboratory assistant. Along with a half-dozen other farm boys, we learned more physics in laboratory assistants than in any class. I found it fun and rewarding helping fellow students.

September 1951 – September 1954:
I stole Sam and my world based instead North Korea was more important in my life than finishing my senior year. Sumner weeks of infantry basic training at Fort Riley, Kansas prepared me for another 22 weeks at Officer's Candidate School at the Engineering School at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. West Point style life and hedge building prepared me to be a Second Lieutenant Executive Officer in a tank-type school at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. The idea was quantitative orders in the Army! After weeks of working former classmates receive for East Germany orders, I received orders to go to Berlin, West Germany, just in case the Russians put troops between Berlin and turning down hedges on the Danube. I got to meet the people of the area and learn knowing the language. I managed to fit in!

September 1954 – September 1957:
Leaving 24 months of till this during my "Forced" hours from college education, I finished my bachelor's degree with major in physics and mathematics. Since I had 27 months left of the original 36 months and since I could see no ways to go to work, I decided to go on for a master's degree in physics and was accepted at the University of Iowa, Iowa City. Again I did not go anywhere this time I took a wife, a good one at Kansas State School, Jean Kelly, who was completing one year at Emporia State, decided to pursue her higher education on that. While at Iowa University, I was again a laboratory assistant and was encouraged by Dr. James Van Allen and his assistants to live by my hand at working, and if that did not work, then go into industry.

September 1957 – September 1959:
So after receiving my master's degree and acquiring a beautiful wife daughter, Kathleen, I accepted a teaching position at a small Presbyterian school, Tarkio College in Tarkio, Missouri. Teaching physics and mathematics was a relatively easy course, mixed out to be a joy, seeing young college students grow and mature. A physics lab facility provided lots of attention to the students when I began teaching course for over one hour.

September 1959 – September 1966:
My family was growing, adding another beautiful daughter, Cynthia, while living in Missouri. I was nearly based back to Emporia State by my mentor, Dr. Winston Crum. There a brand new seven a building added to the top of watching the "lights go on" in student novel. Also adding two more delightful children, James and Jennifer. It became apparent that a Ph.D. was needed to financially advance further in the higher education field.

September 1966--September 1970
So off we all trudged off to Kansas State University in Manhattan. (Did I have to convince my KU supporter father-in-law, that K-State DID have some good points!) A forty-year old by this time, I knew my relatives thought I has gone "off my rocker"--remember no other Rusk had gone to college! Teaching a couple of beginning physical science courses to 300 plus students, and many hours of research with a most understanding advisor, Dr. Dudley Williams, further convinced me that teaching in a much smaller university was definitely more satisfying.

September 1970--September 1992
While on the faculty at Emporia State, I had forged many friendships that now came to be most fruitful. In 1963, a former administrator at Emporia State had gone to Marshall, Minnesota to establish a new college in the Minnesota State system of Colleges. To help him establish a top-notch small university, this administrator drew on his Kansas colleagues and soon had amassed what became known as "The Kansas Mafia" of Southwestern Minnesota. Though we did not join the faculty until 1970, we did grow with the University as the Science and Mathematics Building was not completed until a year after we arrived. I did have to finish that PhD after we moved to Minnesota--graduating in December 1971. Settling down, we tried to become accustomed to the weather of Southwestern Minnesota. Our children were much more adaptable then we and grew up graduating from Marshall High School. All four obtained four-year higher education degrees from Minnesota universities, along with their families have now settled down in Minnesota where we all get together during the summer months!

September 1992--Present
Finding out that we actually had some money left after all the expenses of all those college degrees, we decided that we had had it with the Minnesota winters. Since we have never heard of a funeral where the hearse was followed by a U-Haul trailer, we got rid of 37 years of "stuff" and "hit the road." We sold our home, either sold or gave away our stuff (did have to put a few items in storage in a cabin in Colorado) and bought a 40 foot motor coach. For six years now we have traversed this marvelous continent from Fairbanks, Alaska to Key West, Florida; from San Felipe, Mexico to the Cabot Trail of Nova Scotia; and from Southern California to Bar Harbor, Maine. The more we see the more there is to see!
Last but by no means least, we are the proud grandparents of seven grandchildren who delight and amaze us. There is a lot of truth in the statement, "If we had know that grand-children were so much fun, we would have had them first!" They all live within 150 miles of each other, so it is with joy we travel north every June to that land of ice, snow and wind to be with those delights when the ice and snow has disappeared, the sun shines 16 hours a day and the mosquitos attempt to carry us off! See you all "On The Road."

MEMORIES BY ALVIN RUSK - March 2002

Typically before Grandpa and Grandma (Charles Daniel Lincoln and Jennie Walcher) came for Sunday dinner, Mother (Lottie Rusk) would have us (Raymond, Carol and I) sweep the yard to pick up leaves, chicken manure and feathers. Since we had no sewer, the dishwater would be thrown out the kitchen door under the big elm tree east of the house. Grass wouldn't grow there because of the shade, the chickens, kids, etc. About 10:30 a.m., Grandpa and Grandma would drive up in Grandpa's Model T pickup he used in his produce business. He would haul chickens in wire and wooden crates during the week. It was a big day for all of us because the seven mile trip was a rather infrequent trip for the elderly folks. I would crawl up on Grandpa's big lap, listen to his big pocket watch in his bib overall pocket while he read the Sunday funny papers to me. (Come to think of it, that had to be before Carol was born.) Mother always prepared a big meal, fried chicken or pork chops, homemade bread from a potato yeast renewed weekly and kept for years (I didn't know about sliced bread from a grocery store until high school), mashed potatoes, gravy and Grandma's delicious custard pie.

Preparation for the big day included a Saturday night bath in the wash tub in the kitchen in front of the big wood cook stove. I would get washed up first with Mother scrubbing the week's accumulation from behind my ears and other parts. Raymond would be next followed by Mother and then Dad. The water would be somewhat opaque by that time. A bucket on the stove kept the bath water warm. Before REA (Rural Electric Association) came through, we used coal oil lamps and the new Coleman gasoline lantern.
On other occasions, we would get in the old Hudson and go to town to have Sunday dinner with Grandma and Grandpa Walcher. They had a big pantry with the most fantastic smells. They had electricity and neat carbon-filament light bulbs. Food was kept cold in the ice box. Ice in 50 pound blocks was delivered periodically during because anyway, that a PhD. was needed to financially advance further in the higher education field.

September 1968–September 1970

So off we all trudged off to Kansas State University in Manhattan. Did I have to convince my KU supporters (who, in fact, then K-State DID have some good points)? A foregone call by this time. I knew my relatives (though I had some "off my rocker"—remember so other Rank had gone to college). Teaching a couple of beginning physical science courses to 300 plus students, and many hours of research with a new trade according advisor, D. Dudley Williams, further convinced me that teaching is a much smaller necessity, was definitely more satisfying.

September 1970–September 1972

While on the faculty at Emporia State, I had formed many friendships that now came to be most fruitful. In 1969, a former administrator at Emporia State had gone to Mankato, Minnesota to establish a new college in the Minnesota State system of Colleges. To help him establish a top-notch small university, this administrator drew on his Kansas colleagues and soon had assessed what became known as "The Kansas Mafia" of southwestern Minnesota. Though we did not join the faculty until 1970, we did work with the Library as the Science and Mathematics Building was not completed until a year after we arrived. I did have to finish the PhD after we moved to Minnesota—graduating in December 1971. Settling down, we tried to become acclimated to the weather of Southwestern Minnesota. Our children were much more adaptable than we. Jim's grew up graduating from Mankato High School. All four obtained four-year higher education degrees from Minnesota universities, along with their families, and now settled down in Minnesota where we all are happier during the warmer months!

September 1972–Present

Finding out that we actually had some money left after all the expense of all those college degrees, we decided that we had had it with the Minnesota winters. Since we have never heard of a funeral where the house was removed by a U-Haul trailer, we got rid of 27 years of "stuff" and "hit the road." We sold our home, gave away or threw away our stuff (did have to pay a few items in storage in a cabin in Colorado) and bought a 40 foot motor coach. For six years now we have traversed the marvelous continent from Fairbanks, Alaska to Key West, Florida, from San Felipe, Mexico to the Cabot Trail of Nova Scotia, and from Southern California to Bar Harbor, Maine. The many wonders we have seen have left us with [illegible]

Later but by no means least, we are the proud grandparents of seven grandchildren who delight and so are a [illegible]. There is a lot of truth in the statement, "If we had known what grandchildren were so much fun, we would have had them first." They all live within 150 miles of each other, so it is worth joy to see travel nearly every time to that land of ice, snow and cold to be with those delights when the ice and snow has disappeared, the skies shines a day and the temperature attempt to carry on still. See you all "On The Road."

MEMORIES BY ALVIN KUSK – March 2002

Typically before Grandpa and Grandma (Charles Dwight Lincoln and Jennie Walden) came for Sunday dinner, Mother (Lorrie Rank) would have us (Raymond, Carol and I) sweep the yard to pick up leaves, chicken manure and feathers. Since we had no sewer, the dishwater would be thrown out the kitchen door onto the high clay east of the house. Grass would not grow in the vicinity of the chicken, dog, etc. About 10:30 a.m. Grandpa and Grandma would drive up in Grandpa's Model T pickup he used in his produce business. He would load eggs in wire and wooden crates during the week. It was a big day for all of us because the seven mile trip was a rare occasion with Grandpa and Grandma. I would crawl up on Grandpa's big lap, lean in his big pocket watch in his [illegible] vest pocket which he read the Sunday funny papers to me. (Come to think of it, that had to be before Carol was born.) Mother always prepared a big meal, fried chicken or pork chops, home-made bread from a potato yeast concoct, [illegible] and Grandma's delicious [illegible].

Sometimes on the big day included a Sunday night bath in the small tub in the kitchen in front of the hot wood stove. I would get washed on the [illegible] Mother scrubbing the week's accumulation from behind my ears and other parts. Sometimes would be some fruit sent by Mother and Dad. The water would be some hot opening by that time. A bucket on the stove kept the bath water warm. Before RCA (Rural Electric Association) came through, we used coal oil lamps and the new Coleman gasoline lantern.

On other occasions, we would get in the old Tudor and go to town to have Sunday dinner with Grandma and Grandpa Kusk. They had a big pantry with the most fantastic smells. They had electricity, by and most cabinets. Dinner in light bulbs. Food was kept cold in the ice box. Ice in 50 pound blocks was delivered periodically during the week by the ice man. On the farm, we kept butter and some other perishables in a sack in the cool well off the porch southeast of our house.

Grandpa had a workbench in the garage beside the pickup. It was always a treat to play with his tools to build toys, cars, windmills, etc. in this workshop. The Herb Davidsons lived next door to Grandma and Grandpa on North B Street. Their son, Ken was a year younger than I and we would play together after a big Sunday dinner. (This play time later developed into a great friendship when I went to Wellington to high school.)

EARLY MEMORIES OF LIFE ON THE FARM IN THE 30'S

Often August in the wheat belt is hot and dry. Anything green can burn up in a few days when the hot southwest winds start to blow. One summer a dark cloud came out of the west, instead of rain, a huge brown cloud of dust rolled in. Mother put rags around the doors and windows, but even then an hour after wiping the dust, you could write your name in the dust on the kitchen table. Another time, grasshoppers moved in devouring every green thing in their path. The screen door was completely covered, the roads were ~~thick~~ slick with crushed grasshoppers and trees were as bare as in winter.

Harvest was always exciting. After binding oats or wheat with a horse drawn, eight or ten food header, the bundles were placed in shocks with ten to twelve bundles to a shock. Binding was usually done in late June when the oats were mature but not so ripe to scatter. The grain held off the ground in the shocks continued to dry until a thrashing crew and thrashing machine could get to our fields. One of my jobs was to ride old Spot, our 25 year-old riding horse, to the pasture and bring in 15 or 20 Percheron horses to be harnessed and hitched to bundle wagons. The wagons would then haul the bundles to the thrashing machine. Generally, we wanted the straw to pile up northwest of the barn, it made a great windbreak--sometimes 20 to 30 feet high and as big as the barn. During the following winter, sows would farrow in pens that were dug into the straw. Little pigs would sun burn in the soft, bright sweet-smelling oat straw on the south side of the straw pile.

My Dad, Rupert was the straw boss, keeping things running--from making sure the blower on the thrashing machine was aimed right, greasing the bearings on the thrashing machine, hauling grain away to the bin, and keeping the Rumley tractor that ran the 75 foot flat belt that powered the thrashing machine running. I clearly recall the day when Daddy brought home the 1936 Rumley 6! It was bright green with yellow trim, and it had big steel wheels with six inch lugs for traction on the hind wheels. The neighbors thought Daddy was out of his mind when he took the new tractor to Wellington and had Mr. Gladess (the blacksmith) cut off the steel wheels and weld on rims for rubber tires. Everyone knew the wheels would spin and the rubber would poison the ground. When this rubber-tired tractor would power the thrashing machine, the long belt would sometimes rub the oat straw on the bundle wagon, and friction would build up a static charge on the insulated tractor. A half-inch thick spark would bring one awake quickly when the tractor was touched.

The thrashing crew could amount to ten to fifteen neighbors and hired hands for dinner. Mother, Aunt Ruth (Daddy's sister) and some neighbor ladies would prepare steak, chicken, potatoes and gravy and salad. The crew would take turns washing the sticky oat chaff from their hands and faces in the cool water that came from the cistern under the back porch. Some lye soap, a bucket of water and a dish pan served the purpose very well.

Another memory that made an indelible impression upon this seven or eight year-old horseback rider happened early one July morning. While herding the horses for another busy day of thrashing oats, I came upon one of the mares with a new born colt, that had been stillborn. A half-dozen big turkey buzzards had gathered to feast on the dead colt and the afterbirth left by the mare.

Another time on a 4th of July, I was bringing a dozen or so horses in for preparations of a busy day of thrashing. I was riding Spot, she want to get to the horse tank for a drink, but one of the other horses objected, thought Spot was too close and kicked her in the side with both hind feet. My right leg was in the wrong place--the sharp crack I heard--and felt was my leg. The cast was off by school time in September!

The house where Raymond, Carol and I were raised was many years old when Daddy and Mother rented the land adjacent to Grandpa Ira Rusk's farm. It never had a coat of paint that I knew of, but the galvanized iron roof kept it dry. The wood stove in the living room and the cook stove in the kitchen kept the two rooms toasty in the winter. Outside, bundles of straw on the north and west sides of the living room held out all but the strongest northwest winds. Even then dust and snow would filter through the weathered ship-lap siding. On the south side of the two story part of the house, woodpeckers and squirrels had made holes in the siding and the squirrels took the water by the ice chest. On the farm, we kept butter and some other perishables in a sack in the cool well off the porch southeast of our house.

Grandpa had a workbench in the garage beside the pickup. It was always a year to play with his tools to build toys, furniture, wooden dolls, etc. in this workshop. The Davidsons lived next door to Grandma and Grandpa on North B Street. Their son, Stan was a year younger than I and we would play together after a big Sunday dinner (This play time came developed into a great friendship when I went to Willington to high school.)

EARLY MORNINGS ON A FRIENDLY FARM IN THE 1950s

Often August in the upper half is hot and dry. Anything green can turn up in a few days when the hot southwest winds start to blow. One summer a dark cloud came out of the west, instead of rain, a huge brown cloud of dust rolled in. Anyone put rags along the doors and windows, but even then an hour after wiping the dust, you could write your name in the dust on the furniture tops. Another time, grasshoppers arrived to devour every green thing in their path. The screen door was covered, the roads were dark with crushed grasshoppers and oven were as hot as in winter.

Harvest was always exciting. After binding oats by hand with a horse drawn, eight or ten foot header, the bundles were placed in shocks with ten to twelve bundles to a shock. Binding was usually done in late June when the oats were mostly ripe, but not to ripe to scatter. The grain held off the ground in the shocks contributed to dry hard a threshing crew and threshing machine could get to our fields. One or my jobs was a big, old, fat, 25 year old riding horse, to the pasture and hang to 15 or 20 Ft. on top of the threshing machine. Gradually, we moved the straw to wagons. The wagons would then haul the bundles to the threshing machine. Gradually, we moved the straw to pile up non lower of the barn, it made a great windbreak—sometimes 20 to 30 foot high and as big as the barn. During the following winter, some would further in pens that were dug into the straw. Little pigs would run from in the cold, lovely sweet-smelling oat straw on the south side of the straw pile.

My Dad hinged was the straw bale, keeping things running—from making sure the tractor on the threshing machine was always ready, greasing the bearings on the threshing machine, making quick away to the bin, and keeping the finance tractor that ran the 25 foot fan that provided the drying in a volume manner. I always recall the day when the threshing machine came to town. The crew was well versed in a long day and stuck with an area long for the tractor on the hind wheels. The threshing thought Dad's was our of the area when the tools the new tractor to Willington and was off. Another time came with oat on the road where and would be runs for rubber tires. Everyone knew the where would slip and the rubber would protect the ground. With a tire rubber-tired tractor would power the threshing machine, the long belt would wanderers run on the straw on the header wagon, and farmer would build up a stack stamps on the mechanical tractor. A high-wire stack would long one avoid quickly when the tractor was loaded.

The threshing crew could amount to ten to fifteen neighbors and hired hands for dinner. Mother, Aunt Ruth (Dad's sister) and some neighbor ladies would prepare meat, chicken, potatoes and gravy and salad. The crew would have turns washing the sticky oat chaff from their hands and faces in the cool water that came from the station under the back porch. Some hot water, a towel or sweat and a clean pan served the purpose very well.

Another memory was made an indelible impression upon this mind of a fifty year-old independent rider happened early one July morning. Mother, Dorothy, the horses for another busy day of the threshing crew. I came upon one of the horses with a new born colt, that had been stillborn. A half-dozen big turkey buzzards had gathered to feast on the dead mare and the silent birth lay in the grass.

Another time on a cool of day, I was herding a dozen or so horses in the pasture on a hot day of threshing. I was taking a nap, she was so red to the point that for a drink, but one of the other horses objected, thought that was too close and tried to be in the way with back hind foot. My right leg was in the wrong place—the shoe was I heard—and felt, was my leg. The cost was off by school time in September.

The house where Rosemond, Carol and I were raised was many years old when Dorothy and Mother rented the land adjacent to through the road a farm. It never had a coat of paint that I knew of, but the galvanized iron roof kept it dry. The wood stove in the living room took it's cook stove in the kitchen heat the two rooms cozy in the winter. Outside handles of straw on the north and west sides of the house held out at bay the strongest northwest winds. Even then dust and snow would force in the weatherized cup-board seams. On the north side of the two story part of the house, woodpeckers and squirrels had made holes in the siding and the squirrels took up residence between the floor of the upstairs and the ceiling of the bedroom. The scratching of little feet above the ceiling would lull us to sleep. In the winter, all of us slept in the same room, Mother and Daddy in one standard bed, Raymond and I in another. Carol in a single. We kept toasty warm between wool blankets with our feet on a hot brick or flat iron wrapped in a scrap of an old blanket. Sometimes, the scorched smell of hot wool would be present in the bedroom. In the cold part of the winter, it wasn't unusual for the pot in the bedroom to freeze over with a thin sheet of ice. Conditions made for a quick dash to the stove top in the living room on chilly mornings. The squirrel holes in the weather boarding made an ideal opening for honey bees to build their hives in the walls of the bedroom. We always had plenty of honey after raiding the hives in the fall. I was very allergic to bee stings. A sting on my face would swell up from my neckline to my hairline. My eye would swell shut for a day or so.

Between the living room and the bedroom was a room we referred to as "the little room." Not real small, but smaller than the others. It led to the hallway and upstairs. Along one wall was the upright piano that Mother loved to play. She seemed to relax and be quite happy during the times she played with Daddy singing along. They would practice a piece over and over, so they could entertain at the Jordan Community meeting held monthly at the school house. Opposite the piano was a door that led to an open porch on the southeast side of the house. During the heat of the summer, we would pump water from the well adjacent to the porch and throw it on the wood floor of the porch. The cool breeze made the little room a great place to take afternoon naps.

When the wind was right, a blade of the windmill would hit the tower a little and made an arithmetic sound slightly louder than the wind generator on the tin roof of the house. The 12-volt generator was used to keep the battery charged to power the radio. We would sit around after supper, eat popcorn from a big dishpan and listen to Lowell Thomas and the news. I remember sitting on Daddy's lap, sharing Daddy's popcorn while he read me the funnies.

After Carol was born, Raymond and I would rush home and see out little sister and to listen to our favorite radio program, "Jack Armstrong, the All American Boy." Before supper, after the chores were done, Mother would crank a long (ring) on the telephone and give Central a number (1-387) to talk to her Mother. It was an every day ritual as regular as the clicking of the Seth Thomas clock on the west wall.
Chores consisted of milking eight or ten milk cows, separating the cream and feeding the bucket calves with the separated milk. While Raymond fed the beef cattle and pigs, my job was to wash the old crank cream separator and get it ready for the same job the next morning.

With no electricity, the broom was effective for the larger pieces on the floor, but dust and dirt ground into the old carpet and accumulated over the winter. Each spring, Mother had the house cleaning urge and insisted we do something with the carpet in the living room. One solution was to take up the carpet, nail the edge to a 2 by 4, tie it behind the car and drive around the pasture field--if we could dodge the cow pies and buffalo wallows. The dust flew in a cloud and the carpet came back fresh and clean to be laid back on a clean pad of fresh newspapers.

For entertainment, we would make the seven mile trip to town on a Saturday night. After a trip to the grocery store for flour and a few staples, we would sit in the car and watch the people go by. Daddy would go to the pool hall and exchanges stories on the wheat crop, the weather, milk cow production, etc. On one occasion, we parked by the Santa Fe Railroad tracks to watch the flat car with the big 200 inch- diameter mirror that was to be installed in the largest telescope in the world on Mount Palomar in California. The Hale Telescope has been on the cutting edge of astronomy ever since its construction in the 40's.

On Sunday mornings, Aunt Ruth would come by our house, pickup the three of us. We would then go pick up my three cousins, Adella, Arlos and Arleta and we would all go to Sunday School. After Sunday School, the whole car load of us would go to Lawrence's Drug Store for a cherry coke before going to Grandma and Grandpa Ira Rusk's for a big family dinner. After a big meal, Daddy, Uncle Ray and Uncle Ralph (Daddy's brothers), Raymond and I would climb in Grandpa's big truck with the jump seats right behind the front seat. We would drive around to examine the wheat fields and to decide which fields would be cut first. Since Daddy and his brothers shared equipment, a good deal of planning went into the harvest. Grandpa Rusk's big cigars would give me quite a headache by the time we finally returned in mid-afternoon.

SOME EARL HISTORICAL INFORMATION

When Grandpa Ira Rusk and his brother, Will left Morgan County, Ohio, for the west in the late 1800's, I'm sure they couldn't have dreamed how their actions would change lives during in the next 100 years. I'm not sure what

SOME EARLY HISTORICAL DOCUMENTATION

When Grandpa Ley Rock and his brother, Will left Morgan County, Ohio, for the west in the late 1800's, the were they could not have dreamed how their actions would change lives during in the next 100 years. I'm not sure what influenced them to settle near Wellington but good farm land free of rocks had to be one factor. Ethel and Ella, their wives were reluctant to leave loved ones near Malta, Ohio, but came west on the train sometime later.

Both Grandpa and Will saw the need for draft horses to farm the new land. Registered Percheron horses were their choice. Efforts to improve the breed and the sale of quality stock led to horse shows around the country. Daddy used to tell of the American Royal in Kansas City, Missouri. He also told of how the horses would hear slack being taken up on the train as it started to roll, the horses soon learned to brace for the coming "lurch" as the boxcar would start to move. For years we had a box with dozens of blue ribbons won at the horse shows. One particular colt which was sold to a family named Dreyfus went on to the International Exposition in Chicago where he was judged Grand Champion of the Percheron breed. Daddy kept the sire stallion for breeding purposes for farmer's mares for miles around. Eventually, the tractor replaced the draft horse. I remember the tears streaming down Daddy's face as the magnificent stallion was trucked off to the glue factory. For years we still used the stallion's descendants to pull the feed wagon to feed livestock. Just one word to the horse team (I have forgotten their names) was far better than a tractor in a muddy feedlot.

I recall on incident on the Rumley tractor while moving to a field on the Engle Quarter south of Ralph and Ray's feed lot (Grandpa Ira's place.) Because the tractor had no road gear, it was quicker to transport the tractor by pulling it with a log chain behind the pickup. Daddy's ears were failing and my voice was never very strong, so he couldn't hear me hollering when I noticed the large rear tire s-l-o-w-i-n-g moving outward from under the fender. He quickly realized the problem by the sudden pull--and the sight of the head-high wheel and the water-filled tire with its large cement weight, rolling sedately past the pickup, down the road into a ditch, up the other side through a barbed wire fence and 50 yards into the wheat field where it finally fell over with a loud "plop"! Obviously, our plans for the day were modified!

Braman Postmaster Injured In Wreck That Kills Mother

A highway mishap Sunday at 6:30 p.m. on I-35 just south of the Perry exit killed Mrs. Wilma Walcher, 71, former Braman postmaster.

Critically injured was her sister, Mrs. Eloise Lucas, 67, and Willene Walcher, 47, daughter of the dead woman and present postmaster at Braman, was hospitalized briefly with facial lacerations.

The mishap, investigated by Perry-based trooper Elmer Wilkerson, occurred a tenth of a mile south of the I-35-US 64 intersection when Miss Walcher driver, approached a slow-moving truck from the rear and in taking evasive action struck the right rear of the truck, then careted into collision with yet another vehicle driven by a Kansan.

The only injuries were in the Walcher vehicle and all vehicles were traveling north.

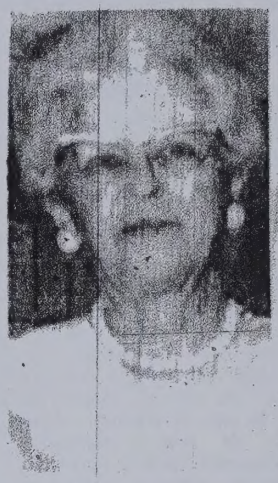
Mrs. Walcher died shortly after the accident of massive head injuries. Mrs. Lucas also suffered critical skull fractures and was transferred to St. Anthony's hospital in Oklahoma City.

Miss Walcher was held overnight in Perry Hospital and released Monday morning.

Wilbur R. Wagman, 43, Goltry, and a passenger, as well is Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Haney, Rozel, Kans., all escaped injury. Wilkerson's investigation of the accident continues. His preliminary report indicates that the truck was moving at less than the minumum interstate speed of 40 miles per hour and that Miss Walcher's speed was about 67 MPH.

Day and time of Mrs. Walcher's services are to be announced by Roberts and Son Funeral Home. Included among her survivors is a son, Olin Walcher, head of the business school at Northern Oklahoma college, Tonkawa.

Mrs. Walcher retired July 31, 1970, after 36 years in Civil Service; all of them as the dedicated postmaster of Braman. She assumed the post in 1934.



MRS. WILMA WALCHER

Mrs. Walcher was born Oct. 26, 1900, near Great Bend and moved to Braman in 1906 with her parents. Her father ran a general store and she was raised in the community, graduating from Braman High School.

Her husband, Herbert R. Walcher, a rural mail carrier at Dilworth, died in 1929.

When Mrs. Walcher took over as postmaster, Braman's post office was located in the red brick bank building on the main street. When the bank moved across the street into a new building, Mrs. Walcher carried on in the new quarters, shifted to the front.

In her earliest days in the post office, following 1934, Mrs. Odgen Dickerson was clerk, and then her own sister-in-law, Mrs. D. E. Lucas, served as clerk for six years.

Her daughter, Wilene, came into the post office as clerk upon her graduation from high school in 1943. Upon her mother's retirment, she was appointed postmaster.

The community of Braman found her efficient and pleasant to deal with and upon her retirement last year, the Braman Research club, the Eastern Star chapter and the Church of Christ were hosts jointly for a community-wide reception for a favorite citizen.

Powell Says He 'Will Not Divest'

WASHINGTON (UPI) Lewis F. Powell Jr. testified today he could not dispose of his major financial holdings without taking a substantial tax loss, but would disqualify himself on the Supreme Court from considering cases involving companies in which he had a financial interest.

Powell told the Senate Judiciary Committee that he realized his stock and bond holdings of about $1.5 million were "a troublesome problem."

President Nixon's other nominee to the high court, William H. Rehnquist, was questioned by the committee last week. The committee is not expected to take action on the nominations for at least several days.

In response to a question from Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., Powell said that in hearing cases involving companies in which he has stock, he would recognize as the guiding principle a proposed canon of the American Bar Association (ABA) that says a judge should disqualify himself if he has any financial interest in a litigant appearing before him.

Powell said the major portion of his stock holdings was in the Sperry and Hutchinson Company. He said he could not dispose of this stock without suffering a substantial loss because of the tax liability.

Sperry and Hutchinson is involved in a case pending before the Supreme Court.

Powell said in response to Bayh's questions that a blind trust would be "of little assistance" because the trustees would have to report gains or losses on his income tax forms.

At the outset of the hearing, Sens. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., the chairman, and Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., said they would vote to confirm Powell.

the Kay County Association of Postmasters honored her at a retirement dinner.

Mrs. Walcher belonged to the National Association of Postmasters of the United States and was a past vice-president for third class offices of the State chapter. She also was a lifetime member of the Kay County Postmaster Association.

She was a past matron of the Braman Eastern Star chapter and belonged to the Braman Research club and, at the time of her retirement, was president of the Braman Cemetery Association.

Her membership was in the Church of Christ.

Mrs. Walcher found time to engage in her favorite hobby—gardening—raising flowers.

She served under five presidents, Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower, Johnson and Nixon. Asked at the time of her retirement about her life, she replied without hesitation, "If I had it to do over again, I would do exactly the same thing."

Surviving are her daughter, Wilene, Braman, and son, Dr. Olin Walcher of Tonkawa; five grandchildren; her sister, Miss Eoline Lucas, former Tonkawa resident who came to live in Braman upon Mrs. Walcher's retirement, and one brother, Erwin Lucas, New Orleans.

The death of Mrs. Walcher and three others Sunday, raised Oklahoma's 1971 traffic toll to 685 compared with 712 a year ago.

The dead:

Wilma Walcher, 71, Braman.
Phyllis Irene Hadley, 26, Colony.
Phillip L. Warden, 16 days, Colony.
William Brown, 68, Bakersfield, Calif.

Mrs. Hadley and the Warden boy were killed Sunday when her car skidded through a dead-end intersection of S. H. 73 and S. H. 44 north of Foss and hit an embankment. Mrs. Lavina Anna Warden, mother of the child who was killed, and Thomas Hadley, 11-month-old son of the driver, were hospitalized in Clinton in satisfactory condition.

Brown died early Sunday in a Fort Smith, Ark., hospital of injuries suffered Saturday night when struck by a car driven by James Earl Presley, 18, of Sallisaw. Authorities said Brown and Edgar Isaman, 68, of Bakersfield, were walking across U. S. 64, from a cafe to a motel, and both were struck. Isaman was critically injured.

Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

BULLET CAUSED FATAL BLAST
A bullet which possibly ricocheted was blamed for setting off more than 60 sticks of dynamite that killed Roy Schultz of Franktown. Douglas County Sheriff Royal McKinster said investigator Jim Jordan revealed Schultz had a .22-caliber revolver in his hand at the time of the blast. Schultz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz, apparently was shooting
Monday at a target or small animal, McKinster said, and a bullet went astray or richocheted and hit the box of dynamite which exploded. The dynamite was used by the boys father, an employ of the State Game, Fish and Parks Division, to blow up beaver ponds in the county. It was stored in a metal shed about 15 feet from where the youth was standing.
Jordans's report stated that because of the cold weather, the dynamite was unstable and it wouldn't require a detonation device to cause it to explode.

JOHN E. WALCHER, FORMER IRVING MERCHANT, DIES

Funeral Services Held at Home Near Witt

Funeral services for John Erastus Walcher, a life-long resident of the St. John's community north of Irving and west of Witt, were conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the family residence, with the Rev. Clifford Larson, pastor of the Lutheran church in Irving, officiating. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

Mr. Walcher, whose death occurred at 2:45 Thursday afternoon at his home, was the father of Mrs. Lawrence Truitt of Hillsboro. He also was the father of Michael Walcher of Irving and Shirley Walcher, formerly of Irving but now of St. Louis.

His death occurred in his 80th year, following an illness of a month or so from the decline due to advanced age.

For many years Mr. Walcher was a farmer in the community in which he spent his entire lifetime and conducted a general store in Irving for 45 years. It was after he had been a merchant for nearly a half century that he sold the store and bought the farm two miles west of Witt.

Mr. Walcher was born and reared in the farming community west of Witt. He attended the public schools there and early in life began work on a farm. He married Miss Maria Platt of Irving. They became the parents of several children, who passed away in infancy. A number of years later he married Miss Elizabeth Muskgrave and they became the parents of three children: Michael, who lives on his paternal grandfather's farm north of Irving, Nema, wife of Lawrence Truitt of Hillsboro and Shirley of St. Louis.

There are five grandchildren. Mr. Walcher was a son of the late Michael Walcher, one of the pioneers of the Irving community.

Funeral Held Saturday For John Walcher

John Walcher, prominent retired Irving merchant, and the father of Mrs. Lawrence Truitt, of Hillsboro, died Thursday afternoon, at three o'clock, at his home north of Irving. Death followed a month's illness from infirmities of old age.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, at the residence. Rev. Clifford Larson officiated at the services and burial was made at St. John's cemetery. Those from Hillsboro who attended the services were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. John Graden, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ash and Mrs. Carl Ludwig.

Mr. Walcher was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Walcher, and was born on a farm north of Irving, over 80 years ago. He grew to manhood on the farm, and when a young man, moved to Irving, where he opened a general store. He operated the store for a number of years and after retiring from business, moved back to the farm where he had lived as a youth. He was living on the same farm when he died.

When a young man, Mr. Walcher was united in marriage with Miss Maria Platt, of Irving. She died several years after their marriage, and a number of years later, he married Miss Elizabeth Musgrave, of Irving, who survives him, with their three children: Mrs. Lawrence Truitt of Hillsboro, Michael Walcher of north of Irving, and Shirley Walcher of St. Louis. Four grandchildren also survive. A brother, Luther Walcher, of Litchfield, died many years ago.

Mr. Walcher had been a member of St. John's Lutheran church north of Irving, since childhood and was a leader in the affairs of the church. He was much liked by the many friends he had made while in business in Irving, and while farming for himself. His death removes another of the pioneer leaders of the Irving community.

Hello to my Musgrave list:

I just received this from Karen Musgrave Westlund. If any of this sounds familiar to you, would you please let her and me know. Below is her genealogy as it stands at the moment as well as her email to me.

Sincerely,
Sarah D. Lee

Let me start off by saying if you want your name removed from the MUSGRAVE COUSINS list, just let me know.I am Karen Musgrave.....seeking family information, and it just seems to me that if we all help one another we just might find ourselves having a big reunion one day. Most of us are related through JAMES MUSGRAVE, some are kin who can't locate from wence they came. But I don't believe any of us are related to the now semi-famous OSWIN Musgrave group. JAMES MUSGRAVE and his wife WINIFRED CLAYWORTH braved the Atlantic with three very small sons, James Jr, William and Simon. The big question is WHAT THE HECK HAPPENED AFTER THEY ARRIVED IN BEAVER CO., PA. IN 1820. I have all kinds of lists of the James Group, but no actual connection.....does anyone know? We've located two of Simon's children's descendents, Jemima Jane and Reuben. (I am of the Reuben Clan). Now we need information on the rest of Simon's children: James K. Musgrave m. Melissa Thackery, Caroline Matilda "Sadie" Musgrave m. Luther Cross, Sarah Alice Musgrave m. W.H. Lawrence, and Mary Elizabeth Musgrave m. Jacob Caster. Mary Elizabeth and Jacob Caster had 7 children; Emma Maud Caster m. Elmer McCurry, Mabel Gertrude Caster m. Delph Pence, Luther Herman Caster m Ethel Hellyer, Margaret Elizabeth Caster m. Milton Bloodshaw Dean, Ernest Cecil Caster m. Selma Johnson, Melvin Pearl Caster m. Erma Peterson and Ethel Amie Caster m. Guy Hawk. But that is all I know.....WHAT HAPPENED TO ALL OF THEM? Any information you want to share I will pass on to the others. Perhaps somewhere along the line we can all connect. Bill and John are my two favorite cousins, and yours, from England. Bill helped me SO VERY MUCH, took me clear back to 1585 with Robert Musgrave. So patient was he with translating all that English mumbo jumbo into American/English for me. Sarah, Galen and Linda are all my "special" Musgrave Cousins. I've known Galen the longest, about 10 years and we still haven't connected, but he feels like family. Sarah, my good friend Sarah, if someone can only find her WILLIAM she would be a happy woman. And now I have Linda, who has graciously shared all her Pennsylvania James Musgrave data with me. If everyone would help we just might be able to put this family together. Thanks for your help. Karen Musgrave

Musgrave Family

By James (Jim) Dallas Musgrave
June 1997

Please let me introduce myself: My name is James Dallas Musgrave, son of William Dallas Musgrave, born September 2, 1959, in Monongalia County, West Virginia. Like my forefathers back to my great-grandfather five times removed, we have spent our lives in Monongalia County VA/WV area.

I often look at the photo of my great-great-grandfather Ephraim Hall Musgrave and wish he could reveal the lost history of his life. After being emotionally affected by the writings and stories of Samuel Corder Musgrave, I wondered how I may be related to this exceptional person. These and other reasons are what I attribute to my pursuit of the Musgrave family history.

For most of my life I lived in Morgantown, WV, but for the last seven years I have lived in Arlington, VA. Living in Arlington has allowed me access to some of the largest reference libraries available to the genealogist. With the help of county birth, marriage, death records, other genealogist and written county histories, I have pieced together the history of early VA/WV Musgrave settlers. To date, I am researching three distinct Musgrave families that have settled in the Virginia, now West Virginia area around the late 1700's and early 1800's.

Samuel Musgrave, born in Lancaster County, Pa in 1747, moved to Monongalia County, Va. Samuel and his wife, Elizabeth (Brand) Musgrave, lived in Monongalia County for 28 years. Leaving behind some of their 12 children, Samuel and Elizabeth moved to Muhlenburg County, KY. Later they moved to Warrick County, IN, where they both later died. A lot is known about Samuel and his family, but who Samuel's father is has eluded myself and other genealogists. It's a good chance that Samuel may be a direct descendant of two brothers John and Moses Musgrave who immigrated from Belfast, Ireland. John came to the New World as an indentured servant to Valentine Hollingsworth in 1682. After John completed his commitment on Mr. Hollingsworth's plantation, his brother Moses made the voyage to the New World. Both John and brother Moses later settled and started their families in the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania area.

I have found no published history past the late 1700's for my direct line of Elijah Musgrave and his descendants. Elijah Musgrave shows up on the Monongalia County, VA 1830 U.S. Census where he listed his wife and himself as 80-90 years old. I also found an old Upshur County History publication stating Elijah and his wife Bashebah were direct immigrants from Germany. Due to many old Monongalia County documents being lost or destroyed during the Civil War, I have been unable to prove or disprove the Upshur County History publication. I'm currently working on a few leads that point to the direction of Elijah Musgrave being a brother or cousin to Samuel Musgrave and the family from Lancaster, Pa.

John Musgrave and Ellen (Stewart) Musgrave, both natives of VA, and of Dutch and Irish extraction, moved from Hardy County, VA, to Mason County, VA, just after the war of 1812. Later they moved to Ohio, and then to Warren County, IN. Asa Musgrave, son of John and Ellen Musgrave, born in 1804, in Hardy County, VA, did not follow his parents west and remained in Mason County, VA. Asa Musgrave and his wife Mary (Yeager)

Please let me introduce myself. My name is James Dallas Musgrave, son of William Dallas Musgrave, born September 2, 1939, in Monongalia County, West Virginia. Like my forefathers back to my great-great-grandfather five times removed, we have spent our lives in Monongalia County, VA/WV area.

Samuel Musgrave, born in Lancaster County, Pa in 1742, moved to Monongalia County, Va. Samuel and his wife, Elizabeth (Farnell) Musgrave, lived in Monongalia County for 25 years, leaving behind some of their 12 children. Samuel and Elizabeth moved to Muhlenburg County, KY. Later they moved to Warren County, IN, where they both later died. A lot is known about Samuel and his family, but who Samuel's father is has eluded research and other genealogists. Elijah Musgrave shows up in the Monongalia County, VA 1830 U.S. Census where he noted his wife and himself as 30-40 years old. I also found an old Upshur County History publication stating Elijah and his wife Rachelan were direct immigrants from Germany. This is many old Monongalia County documents being lost or destroyed during the Civil War. I have been unable to prove or disprove the Upshur County history publication. I'm currently working on a few leads that point to the direction of Elijah Musgrave being a brother or cousin to Samuel Musgrave and the family from Lancaster, PA.

John Hughes Musgrave, son of Elijah Musgrave, born October 10, 1811 of Irish and Irish extraction, married Jane Hardy County, VA, in Mason County, VA, just after the war of 1812. Later they moved to Ohio, and then to Warren County, IN. Asa Musgrave, son of John and Ellen Musgrave, born in 1844, in Hardy County, VA, did not follow his parents west and remained in Mason County, VA. Asa Musgrave married his wife Mary (Yeager) settled on a farm in Robinson District of Mason County. Asa Musgrave died in 1879 survived by his wife Mary and two children Mary E. and Elijah Green Musgrave.

I realize that I have acquired a good bit of information on past Musgrave generations, but have little information on present day generations. I need to ask for your help in gathering information on present day generations of Musgrave's. If you share with me your Musgrave family history, photographs or photocopies and stories, I will be happy to share my Musgrave information with you and try to link you to one of the West Virginia Musgrave ancestors. After organizing the history, I would like to compile and publish my findings. I will offer it and updates at no charge to those families that took time and helped contribute information.

So please, take the time and write down the history of your Musgrave family members that may have migrated to and from the VA/WV area. I hope you can help me accomplish my goals in preserving the Musgrave families throughout West Virginia and beyond. Preserving our Musgrave family history will make it much easier for future Musgrave generations to find their ancestry.

If you have any questions, suggestions or comments, please feel free to call, write, visit or e-mail me.

Sincerely,
